See What You Made Me Do?

A woman in Houston, Texas, was accused of killing her husband by running over him several times with her car. It has been reported that she was heard to direct these remarks toward his body, "See what you made me do?"

After the Oakland Raiders lost the Super Bowl, a large mob torched cars, ransacked stores, broke windows, ripped up bus benches, tore down street signs and threw rocks and bottles at police and firefighters. When asked why they did this, one 19 year-old said, "It's the Raider's fault. Blame it on the Raiders. If they would've won, we wouldn't be doing this." However, they had done the same thing a week before when the Raiders had won.

A number of years ago, the popular comedian Flip Wilson had one of his characters blame the devil when he popularized the statement "The devil made me do it!" Many are still using this excuse today.

While this blame game is still going on, it didn't originate with any of these. It started with Adam when he blamed his wife and even blamed God when he was questioned as to why he had sinned (Gen. 3:12).

None of these could, or can, escape the fact that each person is responsible for their own conduct. "So then each one of us shall give account of himself to God" (Rom. 14:12).

Instead of blaming others for our sins, we should repent of them, confess them and pray to God that He will forgive us (Acts 8:22, 1 Jn 1:9). He that covereth his transgressions shall not prosper; but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall obtain mercy (Prov 28:13).

For marriage to stand in our laws as God ordained it.

For the church in Siliguri and Naresh Chetri

For the churches in Honduras and Haiti who partner with us in the gospel

Special Request

Magnolia Bible College, a small preacher training institution in Kosciusko, Mississippi, announced that the school is closing. The closing will affect many people--students, teachers, employees and sponsoring congregations. John Gardner (Julie Miller's father has been Acting President of the School for a couple of months and has been asked by the Board of Directors to finish the business of the school with as much dignity as possible. John, and his wife, Linda, are the only administrative people left with the school and there is still a lot of work to do. Prayers are requested for all who are now having to relocate and find work, for students whose plans have been disrupted and for John and Linda as they protect the reputation of the school during it's closing.

Bible Class Materials

The next quarter begins Sept. 2. Teaching materials have already been placed in the classrooms.

In the News

Regina Kuhn was honored Friday evening for her many years of service in the County Extension Office. She was presented with a mantle clock as a token of Scioto County's appreciation of her service. Regina is making a career change this fall. She has taken a new position as a teacher.
