MILITARY GRADE BROWNIES

Have you ever made brownies or cookies? Recipes for brownies or cookies usually can fit on an index card. However, military grade brownies and oatmeal cookies come with a 26-page document laying out all the rules and regulations you need to follow to make them. The recipe, or "formula" as they call it, leaves nothing to chance. Everything is strictly regulated. According to the regs, the brownies are not to exceed 3 ½ inches by 3 ½ inches by 5/8 inch, and the cookies, cut in rectangles, are also to be cut to similar size. Even the shortening and nuts are regulated. Here are some excerpts:

3.2.4 Shortening, hydrogenated. ... The shortening shall have a stability of not less than 100 hours as determined by the Active Oxygen Method (AOM) in Method Cd 12-57 of the Commercial Fats and Oils chapter in the Official and Tentative Methods of the American Oil Chemists Society...

3.2.5.3 Nuts, walnuts, shelled. Shelled walnut pieces shall be of the small piece size classification, shall be of a light color, and shall be U.S. No. 1 of the U.S. Standards for Shelled English Walnuts. A minimum of 90 percent, by weight, of the pieces shall pass through a 4/16-in diameter round hole screen and not more than 1 percent, by weight, shall pass through a 2/16-inch diameter round hole screen...

This may seem to be overkill, until you understand the rationale behind such strict regulations. Jeremy Whitsitt, with the Department of Defense Combat Feeding Directorate, told NPR that the recipe is intended to produce food capable of withstanding the most brutal field conditions.

"What would happen if you cooked a meal, stored it in a stifling hot warehouse, dropped it out of an airplane, dragged it through the mud, left it out with bugs and vermin, and ate it three years later? If it were a military meal," Whitsitt says, "it would still be edible and maybe even tasty."

So, it is important to follow the formula. If not, then the food will go bad and the men and women in uniform will go hungry.

This reminds me of when Jesus said, "Do not work for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you..." (Jn 6:27a). The food that Jesus is talking about is the bread of life that has a shelf life of eternity as does those who eat it. Jesus said, "I am the living bread that came down out of heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever" (Jn 6:51a). This eating metaphor communicates that Jesus is to become part of us. It is similar to Paul saying, "yet not I, but Christ lives in me" (Gal 2:20). When we model ourselves after the word that has become flesh (Jn 1:14), and follow his instructions, it will mean life (Jn 6:63). Only he has the words of life (Jn 6:68). This means we follow his instructions and his life and accept no substitutes so that it, and ourselves will endure to eternal life.

Like Israel whose manna spoiled in the wilderness because they did not follow the instructions God gave in not keeping it overnight, we also need to follow God's instructions which will mean life for us.

VBS Prep

Tonight after evening services we need to move several things around in the building in preparation for VBS—tables, chairs, song books, etc. If you can stay for a while after services and help move things, please do. Also, we will need a two or three able-bodied people to help out on Monday in order to get ready for VBS—we're making and putting up signs, moving more things around, trips to town for needed supplies, etc. Are you available? See Steve if you would be willing to help. Plan on starting about 9 am Monday morning

VBS Meeting Today

This morning after services, all people who have signed up as a guide or some kind of support worker for VBS are invited to stay for a meeting to go over what the jobs are about this year. We'll meet in the front of the auditorium. Plan 20 minutes for this meeting. If you have signed up as an alternate, or otherwise plan to be at VBS to help on any night, please stay so that you can get the general idea of the jobs.

Calling All Cookie Cooks

Cookies are needed for refreshment time at VBS. There is a sign-up sheet on the table in the foyer. For each time you sign up please bring at least 2 dozen cookies. It's fine to sign up more than once. Bring your cookies in on the Sunday before VBS, or on Monday or Tuesday. You can bring them through the day and if the building is not open, just leave them between the glass doors. Remember, no nuts, peanuts or peanut butter in the cookies. Some of our kids have allergies.

July Sweet Monday

July Sweet Monday-July 5 at 7 PM. The theme is Let Freedom Ring and we will also feature a short presentation by Kristine Coriell on recycling! See Heather Gragg for details!

Sunday PM Preaching Tonight

This evening we are having a preaching service in the auditorium rather than a Bible Class. Shaun McCray will be speaking. Please plan to be here for that service.

Strawberry Point Trip

All eight of our mission team to Strawberry Point are safely back with us this morning. Members of the team were Caleb, Jacob & Meaghan Miller, Eric McLaughlin, Tim and Greg Coriell, Debbie Shumway and Mark Gamp. The team was able to take care of several critical projects while they were there this week and already have projects lined up for next year. The trip will be in June of 2011. On a Sunday evening right away, the team will take be making a full report to the congregation with pictures and commentary. By the way, the new van was a big help with the trip.

Thank You!

From the family of Olivia Brown, the 3 yr old from the Piketon congregation who has a condition where her brain is growing into the spinal canal. We sent a gift of $600.00 a few weeks ago to help with travel and medical expenses. Louise Brown, Olivia's grandmother, reported to us that Olivia's most recent surgery has helped some with her multiple problems. Long-term, she still has a long ways to go. Prayers are requested.

New 66 Club Member

Cole Borland is our newest 66 Club Member. Cole is the oldest son of Todd and Cara Jo Borland. Congratulations, Cole, on mastering the 66 books of the Bible.

A Foolish Trade

Here's one from the "stupid criminal" file:

"A man walked into a convenience store, put a $20 bill on the counter and asked for change. When the clerk opened the drawer, the man pulled a gun and asked for all the cash in the register.

The man took the cash from the clerk and fled, leaving his $20 bill on the counter.

So, how much did he get from the drawer? Fifteen bucks."

I read that and started thinking, "How often have I done the same thing?" Many times we've given up something of value in an attempt to get something else of even more value, only to be disappointed in what we ended up with.

Do you remember Esau? He left his birthright on the counter as he grabbed a bowl of stew and ran. Wasn't a very smart trade, was it?

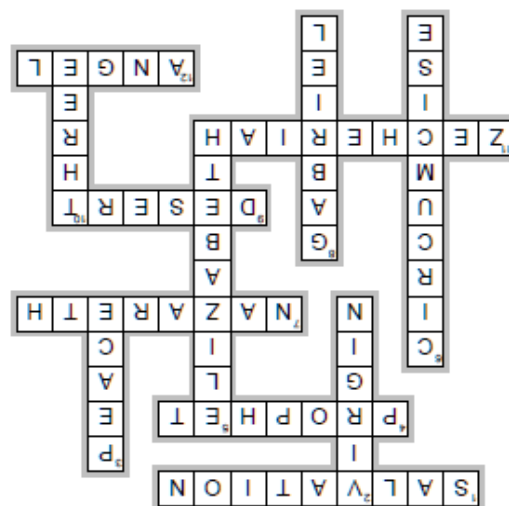

We must remember that any time we trade God's favor for the popularity of men, we do the very same thing. Any time we trade an eternity with God to "live for the moment," we do the very same thing. Any time we trade our character and reputation for a few moments of passion or pleasure, we do the same thing.

"Be careful that no one fails to receive God's grace...Be careful that no one takes part in sexual sin or is like Esau and never thinking about God. As the oldest son, Esau would have received everything from his father, but he sold all that for a single meal" (Hebrews 12:15a, 16)

Don't make foolish trades today. Keep holding on to that which is most important.
