Desiring God's Word

Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander of every kind. Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation, now that you have tasted that the Lord is good. As you come to Him, the living Stone—rejected by humans but chosen by God and precious to him— you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 2:1-5 NIV

Anyone who has ever been around a little baby knows that they are insistent when they think it is time to be fed. They don't care if it is the middle of the night, the middle of a meal, the middle of a conversation, or the bottom of the ninth inning with the bases loaded and two outs. They want food with an intense longing, and they want it right now. Everything else pales into insignificance until they get fed. That is how much we are to desire the Word of God. We should long to read it, to hear it preached and taught, and to hide it in our hearts. Whether we have been saved for weeks or years or decades, we should still be hungry. One of the things that can easily derail a Christian, especially one who has been saved for a longer period of time, is the fallacy that we have reached the point where we no longer feel a need to feed our hearts and minds with the words from the Bible. Jesus warned about the danger of losing our appetite for the things of God and the Word of God. “Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep” (Luke 6:25). We need to maintain the intensity of our appetite for the Bible. There are always new things to learn if we approach the Word of God seeking His direction and purpose for our lives.

A Christian who has lost desire for the Word of God is headed for spiritual disaster.

'Diver's Disease'

The old preacher stood up to preach. He read his text: "They brought unto Him (Jesus) all sick people that were taken with divers diseases" Matt. 4:24

The preacher said: Now the doctors scrutinize you, analyze you and sometimes cure your ills; but when you have a divers disease, then only the Lord can be sure of the cure. And brethren, there is a regular epidemic of divers diseases among us!

"Some Dive for the door after Bible study is over. Some Dive for the television set during the evening services. Some Dive into a bag of excuses about the work that needs done for Jesus. Some Dive for the county fair forsaking church service, and some Dive to the homes of family or friends and neglect assembling together to study the Word.

"Yes, brethren, it takes the Lord and His love for the church to cure Divers Diseases.

Is it time for a check-up?

Have a wonderful day!
