God Can Do Anything

The voice of the Lord strikes with flashes of lightning. The voice of the Lord shakes the desert; the Lord shakes the Desert of Kadesh. The voice of the Lord twists the oaks and strips the forest bare. And in his temple all cry, "Glory!" The Lord sits enthroned over the flood; the Lord is enthroned as King forever.

The Lord gives strength to his people; the Lord blesses his people with peace.

Psalm 29:7-11 NIV

The Bible is filled with promises that God gives to His people. Every one of those promises can be trusted because God is faithful, but also because God has the power to back up what He has said. All of us know what it feels like to have someone let us down—to find out that though they said they would help, they did not.

Sometimes that is because they never really intended to help. Other times it is because some unforeseen circumstance kept them from helping. Sometimes that is because they simply are not able to do anything about the situation we are facing, no matter how much they may want to help. That never happens with God.

The English Puritan Stephen Charnock wrote, "As holiness is the beauty of all God's attributes, so power is that which gives life and action to all the perfections of the Divine nature. How vain would be the eternal counsels, if power did not step in to execute them. Without power His mercy would be but feeble pity, His promises an empty sound, His threatenings a mere scarecrow. God's power is like Himself: infinite, eternal, incomprehensible; it can neither be checked, restrained, nor frustrated by the creature."

When we turn to God for help, we are reaching out to someone who knows what we need, knows what the best outcome is, knows what is needed to achieve that outcome, and is more than able to do whatever it takes to accomplish His purposes.

There is no power shortage with God.

We will never face any circumstance that poses a challenge to God.

Paul Chappell
