In this text Paul is speaking to Christians;

I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise. So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

Romans 1:14-17 KJV

When we think about God's unlimited power, one of the first and most obvious demonstrations is creation. Simply by speaking it into existence God created the world out of nothing. "Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast" (Psalm 33:8-9). Another commonly-thought of display of God's power is the miracles we see both in Scripture and in our own lives. God is not bound by what is possible for us. He has all power, and is able to work in whatever way is needed to accomplish His purpose. The seas can part, the sun can stand still, the barren can have children and the overwhelming enemies can be defeated.

Often people do not think of the gospel in terms of it being a demonstration and display of God's power, but there is no greater miracle than a child of the devil who is lost and headed for eternity in Hell to become a child of God who is saved and headed for eternity in Heaven. That kind of transformation is beyond any human power, but it poses no challenge for God. "When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved? But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible" (Matthew 19:25-26).

We have the only message with the power to transform eternal destinies, and must be faithful to share it.

Proverbs 23:23

“Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.”

King James Version (KJV)

As a Bible student, you need to measure and test everything you read by the Word of God. You have a grid that everything must pass through. You have a radar. All truth intersects, and one of the tests of any good book is this: When you put that book down, do you begin to think? All genuine truth intersects because all real truth is of God. God did not make you to be a reservoir of facts - He meant for you to be a channel of truth. If you're growing in knowledge but not growing in grace, you're going to be dangerous. I've met those people. They can split a theological hair into nine separate sections, but they're not growing in the grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Some people just want to study methods. You will never get excited about methods unless you learn the truth behind the method. Why do you do this? Are you experiencing freedom? Real truth, as Jesus says, sets you free. In your study, ask yourself these questions: Am I learning humility? Am I sharing grace with others in the process? Am I being set free?

A. Rogers

Have a wonderful day!
