. Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect. For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

Galatians 3:16-18

The Great Depression put enormous pressure on the banking system. In 1930, more than 1,300 banks collapsed and closed their doors. The following year, the total rose to 2,300. People who had money in one of those banks lost everything. When Franklin D. Roosevelt took office in 1933, he declared a national "bank holiday" where all the banks were closed and no one could withdraw money. When the banks reopened, a new program was put in place to give customers confidence that their money was safe. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation was formed to provide a guarantee that depositors would still be able to get their money even if their bank failed. This guarantee played an important role in restoring confidence in the financial system.

The promises God has given to us are wonderful. But if we could not fully trust them, they would provide us no hope or comfort. However, we can fully trust them because they are guaranteed by the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. "For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea. For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us" (2 Corinthians 1:19-20). He is the guarantee that everything God has offered to us will happen, and that we have nothing to doubt or fear regarding the future. Jesus is all the guarantee we need that all of the promises of God are faithful and true.

Plan for Worship:

Come early, Bring the entire family: The worship service is not a convention where you simply send a delegate. We need you here.

Be reverent: We come to worship God. The worship service deserves our utmost attention.

Be considerate of others: Be helpful to their worship, not a hindrance.

Participate: Don't just be a spectator.

Be thoughtful of strangers: They are our guests.

Contribute generously: God loves a cheerful giver.

“But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.”

1 Corinthians 15:10

If there'd been some other way for you to be saved apart from the death of Jesus Christ on the cross, do you think God would have taken it? Be reasonable. Are you going to tell me that God allowed His precious Son to die the most humiliating, agonizing death a man has ever known, when there was some other way for us to be saved?

The beautiful thing about the Gospel is that God thought it and Jesus bought it. God planned it out; it didn't originate with Man. And Jesus bought it with His own precious blood. The only reason you seek the Lord is because He first sought you. Don't get the idea that you thought it up by yourself

GOD LOVES YOU AND WE LOVE YOU TOO
