“AS FOR ME AND MY HOUSE”

Joshua is one of our favorite Bible characters because he typifies what a man of God should be.

He was one of the 12 spies sent into Canaan to scout the land and its people. Joshua's character showed clearly when 10 of the 12 brought back a negative report, saying the inhabitants of the land were very powerful, and the Israelites could not overcome them.

However; Joshua and Caleb saw things differently. They gave a minority report saying, with God's help, the Israelites could surely conquer the land.

The people did not take Joshua's advice to trust God, as a result they spent the rest of their lives wandering in the Wilderness instead of living in the Promised Land.

When Moses died, God then chose Joshua to lead his people in taking possession of Canaan. This he did in splendid fashion, conquering many cities such as Jericho along the way.

One of Joshua's finest hours came when he was old. He called the people together and admonished them to always serve the Lord faithfully. He then said, "But if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your forefathers served beyond the river, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living.

"But as for me and my house, We will serve the Lord" Joshua was outstanding because of his steadfast service to God and his courage to trust and stand for right against overwhelming odds.

The Lord needs more like Joshua.

Holding Grudges

One day a visitor leaned on the fence that surrounded an old farm as he watched the busy farmer plowing his field with a mule. After a while, the visitor called out to the farmer, Sir I'd like to make a suggestion. I don't like to tell you how to run your business, but you could really save yourself a lot of work by saying "Gee" and "Haw" to that mule instead of tugging and dragging on those lines all day.

The tired farmer pulled a big handkerchief from his pocket and wiped his sweaty face.

Then he said, "I reckon you're right mister. But, you see this animal kicked me about five years ago and I ain't spoke to him since."

Let go of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling, and slander, along with every form of malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as Christ God forgave you.

Ephesians 4:31-32

Have a wonderful day!
