What's A Soul Worth?

I don't know why it is, but we tend to lose sight of the value of things that we are most closely associated with. This is particularly true of the soul. We have this one possession worth more than all the world, yet we often treat it as though it has very little value. Just how much is one soul worth?

Ask John and he could tell of the time he was threatened and told to never again speak or teach in the name of Jesus (Acts 4:18). He could tell you about being arrested, put in prison, brought before the Jewish council, falsely accused, and beaten (Acts 5:18-40). This is what a soul is worth.

Ask Stephen and he could tell of the hours spent in service to the needy. He could tell you of debates with false teachers, or of his being taken before the courts of evil men who lied about him, of his courageous speech and then finally to his death by stoning (Acts 7:1-59)

This is what a soul is worth.

Ask Ananias and he could tell you of the fear among Christians in Damascus when they heard of Paul's coming. He could tell you of his own fear when the Lord asked him specifically to go teach Paul. He could tell you of how much he did not want to go (Acts 9:10-19).

This is what one soul is worth.

Ask Paul and he could tell you of his life. The threats, the beatings, the shipwrecks, the prisons the trials, the imprisonments.

This is what a soul is worth.

Ask the martyrs of the first century; ask our Lord; ask the Father; but finally ask yourself.

What is a soul worth?

How much does my love for a lost world compare to the love others have had for it? Think about it.

What price are you willing to pay for one soul?

How much do you think a soul is worth?

Which Brick Are You?

If you wanted to take a brick from a construction site, which one would you try to remove first? Would you pick up one from the pile of unused brick or would you try to remove one the bricklayers had already placed in a wall? Of course, you'd probably choose one from the pile, because it's unattached and easy to remove. It would be much more difficult to remove a brick from a wall.

Perhaps you can see the illustration;

Some Christians are very active in the church and are very close to their brothers and sisters in Christ. Then there are some who seem very indifferent to Jesus Christ. They seldom associate with their brothers and sisters in Christ because their interests lie elsewhere.

When Satan starts looking for those to destroy, which Christians do you think he will attack and try to remove first? Again, of course those unattached to the church will be much easier. Christians, let's not make it so easy for him.

"Like a mighty army move the church of our God."

If we band together like an army we will be much less vulnerable. Let's all become more dedicated and bonded together with love so all can stand steadfastly against the devil and his ways.

R. Kennedy

Have a wonderful day!
