It Never Goes Away

Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

Romans 7:17-21 KJV

We rightly think of Paul as a giant of the faith. This man who had once relentlessly persecuted the church showed the same zeal in spreading the gospel after he met Jesus and was saved. His fearless preaching spread the gospel across the Roman Empire, often at great personal cost. He was beaten, stoned, thrown in jail, shipwrecked, and falsely accused. Yet through all of that, Paul remained faithful to the Lord. However, despite his faith and life of service, Paul still identified with the struggle against sin. He still fought the old nature, and he still found it easier to do wrong than to do right.

We must never fall into the trap of thinking that we have somehow arrived at a point where we are no longer susceptible to sin. If we think we are above falling, we are in grave danger. Peter demonstrated this truth when Jesus warned him about his coming denial. Peter loudly protested his loyalty to Christ, saying that if everyone else turned away, he would not. “But Peter said unto him, Although, all shall be offended, yet will not I” (Mark 14:29). A few hours later the rooster crowed, and Peter wept bitterly because he had done the very thing he was so certain he would not do. We cannot fight against sin in our own power, but in God's power we can have victory.

We must never fall prey to the idea that we have progressed beyond the reach of temptation.

Be Thankful for....

Blessings instead of crosses,
Gains instead of losses,
Joys instead of woes,
Friends instead of foes,
Smiles instead of tears,
Courage instead of fears,
Full years instead of lean,
Kind deeds instead of mean,
Health instead of wealth,
And yes, above all,
Count on God instead of self.

Don't Fall In Love With Riches!

The truthfulness of this statement is illustrated by the account of a man who confided in his preacher saying "When I had $50,000 I was happy, but now that I have $500,000 I am miserable."

Having money is like grabbing an electrical wire - - - the more 'juice' the tighter its hold. All too often people become enslaved by greed and engage in crimes of fraud, perjuries, robberies, even murder.

Don't fall in love with riches! Paul says "For the love of money is the root of all evil." (1 Timothy 6:10) Notice carefully that he did not say "money is the root of all evil." but rather the "love" of money. Many who are poor can have an inordinate love for wealth. It is the lust for money that pollutes and poisons the soul. Make the Lord the object of your faith and devotion. Put God first in your life - - not gold.

Remember some may think they have everything when riches come their way.

But sadly, they've been quite poor as it's revealed on God's accounting day.

Have a wonderful day!
