And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.

1 John 4:14 KJV

From the earliest days of Jesus' life and ministry on Earth, there were people who shared what they had seen and heard concerning Him with others. Think about it: upon leaving the manger, the shepherds scattered across the Judean countryside, telling everyone what they had heard and seen. The wise men arrived in Jerusalem and threw the city into an uproar by announcing they had seen the star heralding the birth of a new king. John the Baptist proclaimed that the time for the coming of the Messiah had arrived. Again and again, Jesus sent out His disciples to announce His presence. Before returning to Heaven, He commissioned them, and us, to spread the good news all around the world.

When Jesus cast the demons out of a man and into the herd of pigs feeding nearby, everything changed. This man who could not live around other people but stayed in a graveyard, constantly threatening those who passed by, was now wearing normal clothing, in full control and in his right mind. The people were astonished. He asked Jesus if he could go with Him but instead Jesus gave him a different assignment. "Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him" (Luke 8:39).

It is not enough just for us to receive and know the truth for ourselves. We must share it with others as well, telling them what we have seen and heard and experienced. This is God's plan for reaching the lost. The Scottish pastor and theologian James Denney wrote, "It is not the main part of [the evangelist] to tell men to make their peace with God, but to tell them that God has made peace with the world. At bottom, the Gospel is not good advice, but good news. All the good advice it gives is summed up in this: Receive the good news!"

We have the message the world needs to hear, and it is our responsibility to share it with them.

helped with the Sunshine Day Camp.

The kids enjoyed a great week of learning and had lots of fun!

The Church Camp Week was full of blessings. We are especially thankful for the decision of two of our young people,

Myles Montgomery
And Lucy Grashel.

They were baptized into Christ on Thursday. We are so happy for them and their families. We pray for blessings as they each begin their new life.

The angels in heaven rejoice!

A Parents Prayer

Lord, this I ask, that I might be True to the trust you gave to me;
That I might rear this child of mine,
Each day to be a child of thine.

That I might guide his precious feet
From each new danger he will meet;
That I might keep him in the fold
That I might teach him Lord, thy hand to hold.

'Tis when the big sheep go astray,
That oft the lambs, too; will go that way,
So that is why this day, I ask,
Lord, Please make me worthy of this task.

Have a wonderful day!
