Do All You Can

And there went a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi. And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months. And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

Exodus 2:1-3 KJV

At the time Moses was born, Pharaoh who was alarmed by the growing population of the Israelites had issued an evil decree that all male Hebrew children be killed. Instead of obeying that edict, Moses' parents kept Moses alive and hid him as long as they could. Hebrews 11:23 tells us, "By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment." When his parents could no longer hide Moses with them, they placed him in a little boat and put it by the river's edge. His parents did not know what was going to happen, but they did all they could and then trusted God for the rest.

Many times we think we know how things will turn out, only to find that nothing happened the way we expected. Sometimes we may feel that our situation is impossible. But that is never true if God is involved. He is able to place a Hebrew child in the palace of Egypt and have him be raised as the grandson of Pharaoh. He is able to have that child's own mother paid to nurse him and train him. He is able to prepare that child to lead an entire nation. Nothing that we face poses a challenge to God.

Our task is not to figure everything out, but to do what we know and trust God for the rest.

Faith does not have to see the path—it simply looks to God.

When we cannot see the entire path ahead, we must do what is in front of us and trust God for the rest.

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Matthew 5:14-16 KJV

God has called His children to be lights in the darkness of the world around us. We don't need anyone to remind us of how dark and hopeless things are because we see it every day. Rather than being discouraged by that darkness, we should be inspired to make our lives count for God. Speaking of John the Baptist, Jesus said, "He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light" (John 5:35). The reality is that everyone around us should easily be able to see that we are children of God. This is best done not through our speaking, though we should speak the truth, but through our daily living.

If our lives are filled with the light of God, it will be impossible to conceal it from those around us.

Paul Chappell

Have a wonderful day!
