The Cross from the Perspective of the Angels

"Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not come into this city or shoot an arrow there... For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake and for the sake of my servant David." And that night the angel of the LORD went out and struck down 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians. 2 Kings 19:32,34-35

Imagine the crucifixion from the perspective of the angels. They didn't understand what was going on (1 Pet 1:12), which means they were as baffled as everyone else over what had happened. When Jesus said he could call 12 legions of angels to come (Mt. 26:53), we should remember an angel was already there. "And there appeared to him an angel from heaven, strengthening him." (Lk 22:43) What was going through the mind of that angel when Jesus was arrested? It's not unreasonable to think he was expecting to be called upon to defend Jesus at any moment. But that was just the arrest. Angels watched as Jesus was mocked, spat upon, and beaten. Can you imagine their shock and dismay at what was happening? Can you see them gathering, getting ready for war? If an angel was sent at the request of King Hezekiah, how much more when the only begotten Son is crying out to his Father? Can you imagine them looking over at God as all of these things were happening? Were they wondering when the order would be given? This was their Lord being crucified. They had worshipped him ever since they were created. Now, they silently wait... But the order never came. He was scourged... He was nailed to a cross... His body was covered in blood... He cried, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" But the order never came. Amazing love!

Father, we join the angels in worshipping you and the Lamb who was slain for our sins.

God Loves You and We Love You too.

A Powerful Verse

An elderly woman had just returned to her home from an evening church service when she was startled by an intruder. She caught a man in the act of robbing her home of its valuables and yelled, "STOP! Acts 2:38!" The burglar stopped in his tracks. The woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done.

As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar, "Why did you just stand there? All the old lady did was yell a scripture to you." Scripture? Replied the burglar. "She said she had an ax and two 38s!"

“Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins;
and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.”
Acts 2:38

Note: This is a powerful verse. It has the power, when obeyed, to remove all sins in a person’s life.

God Loves You and We Love You Too!

Have a wonderful day!
