It All Stays Behind

There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt. But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand. As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

Ecclesiastes 5:13-15 KJV

Every year various organizations and news outlets publish lists of the richest people in the world. The amount of money owned by these people is staggering. There are many different ways in which they acquired their great wealth, whether through inheritance or investments or building a business. And there are many different ways in which these people invest or spend or save their money. But there is one thing that they all have in common. None of them, no matter how fabulously rich, will take a single cent with them when they die. All of the things of this world remain in this world. That is why the Bible instructs us to keep our focus, not on things here, but on things in Heaven. Jesus told a parable about a rich man whose farm produced a bumper crop. He was delighted, thinking that his future was secured. He went to bed thinking about his plans for bigger barns and days of leisure. He never woke up. "But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God" (Luke 12:20-21). The things that we acquire in this world can be used for good purposes, but in order to last they must be invested in the eternal.

Now this is what the LORD Almighty says: "Give careful thought to your ways. You have planted much, but harvested little. You eat, but never have enough. You drink, but never have your fill. You put on clothes, but are not warm. You earn wages, only to put them in a purse with holes in it." Haggai 1:5

Are we storing our treasures in
"a bag with holes?"

The things that we acquire in this world can be used for good purposes, but in order to last they must be invested in the eternal.

In the mid 1800s a new phrase entered the English language: "Shrouds have no pockets." A person who is being buried has no use for possessions and no way to take them along into eternity.

The resources God entrusts to us in this world must be used to lay up treasure in the next.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal.
But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven .....

Matthew 6:19-20

God Loves You and We Love You Too!

Have a wonderful day!
