Do not merely listen to the word and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror, and after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it— they will be blessed in what they do.
James 1:22-25

There is an important question we all must ask ourselves:

What then shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?

This question is personal.

We like Pilate, must answer it. This is a pertinent question. We're not talking about some personality. We're not talking about some denomination. We're not talking about some idea. We're talking about one who claims to be the Son of God. This question is a pressing question. It is before us right now. Everyone does answer one way or another, whether vocally or by our actions.

But, we do answer this question.

Jesus Christ was in Pilate's hand that day. And today Jesus Christ is in your hand. But the time came when Pilate was in Jesus' hand, and the time will come when you and I will be in Jesus' hand. Jesus was standing before Pilate, but at the judgment, Pilate stands before Jesus. Jesus is standing before you today, through the Spirit and through the Word. But one day, you will stand before the Lord Jesus Christ. So, what will you do with Jesus who is called Christ?

As A Tale Is Told

The writer of Psalms says, “We spend our years as a tale that is told.” (Ps.90:9)

At birth, every person begins this journey, and he has no choice as to whether or not he will complete it. He cannot stop and stand still to enjoy the most interesting places along the way. He cannot turn back and go the other way. There are no other roads to travel or detours around hard places. The course we travel is time and each day cuts off some of the distance. Awake or asleep, we travel on.... We cannot stop this side of eternity.

Life is a voyage. Time is the sea. The Bible is the compass and Jesus is the pilot. There is only one ship going where we want to go, and that is the church. For each person there is only one trip through time to eternity. Paul was so serious about this matter that he said “Neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy.”

Let’s not waste our time that passes so quickly, without thought concerning the true purpose of our life. When we stand to face God on the day of judgement, our days of life will be before us, —just as we lived them. Our years, like the pages of a book, all filled up with our thoughts, words and deeds.

Some of us are traveling the last mile of the way, nearing the end of our journey. We look back and wonder at the brevity of life. Jesus truly wants to be the pilot of our life as we sail through time. Job said, “My days are swifter than a weavers shuttle.” (Job 7:6)
