For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

2 Corinthians 5:1-4 KJV

The story goes that not long before he died at the age of eighty, John Quincy Adams met a friend on the streets of Boston. The man asked, "How is John Quincy Adams?" The aged former President replied, "John Quincy Adams himself is very well, thank you; but the house he lives in is sadly dilapidated. It is tottering on its foundations. The walls are badly shattered, and the roof is worn. The building trembles with every wind. And I think that John Quincy Adams will have to move out of it before long. But, he himself is very well."

All of us face the reality that unless the Lord returns, our bodies will age and we will eventually die. Yet those of us who have trusted Christ as Savior have the wonderful promise of a new and perfect body in a perfect place. This world is not all there is. And as the old song put it, it is not our home. We are just passing through this life on the way to Heaven. We do not know how long we will live, but we do know what will happen when this life is over. If the day comes when our earthly bodies are placed into a grave, we will still be alive. In fact, we will be more alive than we are right now and will be in the direct presence of God. As Paul wrote, "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord" (2 Corinthians 5:8) Because of the faithful promises of God, there is never any need for a Christian to fear the future.

At noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. And at three in the afternoon Jesus cried out in a loud voice,
Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?
(which means “My God, My God, why have you forsaken me?”)
With a loud cry, Jesus breathed his last.
But this was not the end. Matt.27:45

Tomorrow

“Tomorrow,” he promised his conscience, “Tomorrow, I mean to believe.
Tomorrow, I’ll think as I ought to; Tomorrow, my Savior receive.
Tomorrow, I’ll conquer the habits that hold one from heaven away.”
But ever his conscience repeated one word, and only one word: “Today.”
“Tomorrow, Tomorrow, Tomorrow” —
Thus day after day it went on;
“Tomorrow, Tomorrow, Tomorrow”—
Till youth like a vision was gone,
Till age and passions had written the fate on his brow,
And forth from the shadows came Death, with the pitiless word, “Now!”
“What will you do with Jesus? The call comes low and clear;
The solemn words are sounding now in your listening ear.
Immortal life is in the question, with joy through eternity.
Then what will You do with Jesus?
What will your answer be?”

“Now is the day of salvation.”

2 Corinthians 6:2

God Loves You and We Love You Too!

Have a wonderful day!
