Be Content

But I rejoiced greatly in the Lord, that at last you renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you were concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want.

I can do all this through him who gives me strength.

Philippians 4:10-12

The difference between those who are content and those who are not has nothing to do with how much they have. There are millions of people with very little who are content and millions of others who have a great deal but are never satisfied. No amount of increase in possessions can provide true contentment, for no matter how much we have, a love for more can never be fully satisfied. Solomon had great wealth and power, but he recognized their ultimate emptiness and lack of ability to provide contentment, writing, "He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity" (Ecclesiastes 5:10).

The world around us measures success in terms of houses and bank accounts and retirement funds. But God looks at the heart and not the balance sheet. He knows that we can only be truly content if we rest in Him. That is why He calls us to contentment—not to take away good things from us, but to guard us against the snares of longing for more. The Christian who has God can always be content, regardless of what he has or lacks. God alone is always enough.

John Bunyan wrote:

He that is down needs fear no fall;
He that is low, no pride;
He that is humble, ever shall
Have God to be his guide.

I am content with what I have,
Little be it, or much;
And, Lord, contentment still I crave,
Because Thou savest such.

If we are not content with whatever God has provided, no amount of increase will ever satisfy our hearts.

“There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeing Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.”

Luke 16:19-24
