Hebrews 12:1 describes a great cloud of witnesses surrounding Christians, urging all to throw off every hindrance and sin that so easily entangles. Sadly, even while being cheered on, Christians have become slack in dealing with sin in their lives.

So when sin is not being confronted, or even viewed as sin at all, it's time to address it with the hope of gently helping to restore believers caught in its web.

Below are 10 sins that often go overlooked in Christian community. Addressing overlooked sins in the Christian community requires recognizing subtle habits and attitudes that quietly hinder spiritual growth.

Here are 10 common, yet frequently overlooked, sins or spiritual hindrances in daily Christian life: Pride and Self-Righteousness:

Believing one is spiritually superior or immune to falling because of correct doctrine or church involvement.

Gossip and Slander: Sharing damaging information or negative talk disguised as a "prayer request" or concern.

Materialism and Greed: Placing a higher priority on wealth, comfort, and consumerism than on God's kingdom and generosity.

Apathy and Complacency: Losing zeal for spiritual growth, prayer, and serving others, becoming comfortably indifferent to the needs of the world.

* Unforgiveness and Bitterness: Harboring resentment or withholding grace while keeping track of wrongs suffered from others.

Gluttony and Lack of Temperance: Overindulging in food, entertainment, or digital consumption to numb stress instead of turning to God.

Judging Others (Hypocrisy): Scrutinizing the visible faults of outsiders or fellow believers while ignoring one's own internal motivations and moral failings.

Lying and Dishonesty: Utilizing subtle half-truths, exaggeration, or deception to protect personal image or avoid minor consequences.

Anxiety and Lack of Trust: Living in constant worry and control rather than trusting God's provision and sovereignty.

Idleness and Waste of Time: Neglecting opportunities to love and serve others by spending excessive time on trivial or self-absorbed pursuits.

When approaching a loved one, friend or member of the Lord's body, take a gentle approach to the one caught up, and yes have them read scripture passages focused on renewal and repentance.

Above all this let them know:
God Loves You and We Love You Too.

We will be studying the book of Galatians, Free Because of Jesus

What is Galatians about?

Galatians is a letter Paul wrote to some churches that he knew and cared about. These people had heard about Jesus. They believed in Him. But, after Paul left, some other people, started telling them they needed more. They said "Jesus was good, but they also needed to follow certain rules and do certain things if they really wanted to be right with God.

Paul writes this letter to say, No. Jesus is enough. We don't earn our way to God. We don't have to prove ourselves to Him. Jesus has already done what we couldn't do for ourselves. And because of Jesus, we're free. But that freedom isn't just about getting into heaven someday. Jesus changes the way we live right now. He gives us His Spirit, He teaches us to love people. He helps us get back up when we fall. And He teaches us to help each other along the way.

Jesus Is Enough.
