12 Reasons Why I Stopped Attending Football Games

1. Every time I went to a game, they asked me for money.
2. It was too crowded.
3. Some of the other fans didn't say "Hello" to me.
4. The seats were too hard.
5. The coaches never came to visit me.
6. The referees made a decision I disagreed with.
7. Some of the games went into overtime and I was late getting home.
8. The band played songs I didn't like.
9. The games were scheduled when I wanted to do other things.
10. My parents took me to too many games when I was growing up.
11. The stadium is too far away.
12. I don't want to influence my children. I want them to choose for themselves which sport they like the best.

Welcome, Bruce

Bruce Gleim is our guest speaker today. He is well-known to many who are here since he comes from this area and claims Sunshine as his home congregation. Bruce has been preaching the gospel all over Ohio for better than 25 years. He is now preaching at the Vandalia church in the Dayton area. These three lessons on Islam are the fruit of a personal study he has made of the Koran and were given in his home congregation in November of 2003. Bruce has some books and materials laid out in the foyer. These materials are either free or made available to us at cost.

Sunday PM Services

Bruce Gleim will be concluding his messages on Islam this evening with a short Question and Answer period to follow. We suggest that you tape the first half of the SuperBowl. Everybody should be home in plenty of time for the second half.
