Vol. 39 — Issue 20

“She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: “Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.” Charm is deceptive and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her the reward she has earned, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.” – Proverbs 31: 27-31

When I was a kid, we went to church at Harding Avenue in Sciotoville as did Bud and Wanda and a bunch of other people from Sunshine. Back then, there were two places to have a church picnic – At Earl and Wilma Lee’s grove, where Mike and Sharon Gampp live now, or at Bud and Wanda’s place. Even 20+ years ago, Wanda was the church picnic and potluck dinner queen. But she was much more than that. Wanda was an “anchor” of the community – she was one of those people that made you feel better by knowing she was there.

It’s been a long time ago now, but when my grandmother suffered a brain aneurism and we thought we would lose her, Wanda was the first and only neighbor to show up when the ambulance came. I was pretty torn up and Wanda grabbed me, hugged me, and told me I needed to “get it together” because my family and grandmother needed me. Years later, when my grandmother spent a lot of time alone at home during the day, Wanda stopped me and wanted to take her out to eat so she wouldn’t have to be alone so much. She was one of only 2 or 3 church people and neighbors that offered to do something like that. I will never forget those simple acts of kindness – it meant more than she’ll ever know.

These were just a couple examples of Wanda’s true spirit. Throughout this church and community there are wonderful memories of Wanda, and this article could never represent all the accolades due her. But from what I have seen, Wanda was a phenomenal mother, Christian example, and true neighbor. Wanda was, and will continue to be, one of the strongest and most genuine people I have known. Without a doubt, we all felt better knowing she was there!

Please pray for ...

For our national leaders and world leaders as they lead their respective nations.

For our troops in Afghanistan, Bosnia, Korea, Iraq, Liberia, Haiti and other places.

For the lost in our families and community.

For the ban on partial birth abortion to stand as law.

Jeremiah Gayheart (8 yrs old) has an inoperable brain tumor.

Harry Woodworth has been told his tumor is contained and not in the lymph glands. The next step is to get approval from the cardiologist for the surgery to remove it.

Margaret Reed has both knees replaced on Monday. She is in Room 304 at SOMC.

Mary Williams (Steve's Williams mother) remains in SOMC recuperating from her hip surgery.

Danny Deveck (Rhonda Berry's uncle in New Philadelphia, OH) has been diagnosed with lymphoid cancer.

Charlie Rose (former CVS pharmacist and friend of Jon Coriell) needs a liver transplant but may not be strong enough to have the surgery.

Forrest Hayward was readmitted to the hospital on Monday and Tuesday with congestive heart problems.

Becky Dixon had surgery this past week and all went well.

Sympathy Extended

To the family of Wanda Coriell who passed away on Tuesday about 3:30 pm. There is a fellowship meal at 1:00 pm today and a memorial service to follow at 2:30. All are invited to stay.

To the family Goldie Shepherd (mother-in-law to Sharon Shepherd) who passed away on Thursday. Funeral arrangements are at the Harrison Funeral Home in Wheelersburg.

Help Needed

After the fellowship/memorial dinner today we need volunteers to stay around and help us put things back in order. Volunteers check in with Debbie Sullivan or Candi Gamp.

Shepherd's Prayer Session

This Thursday evening at 7:30 pm the elders will be meeting to pray specifically for the families and individuals in this congregation. If you have something special you want them to be praying about, please get with them between now and Thursday.

Fellowship Meal and Memorial Service

Today we honor the memory of our departed sister, Wanda Coriell, with a fellowship meal at 1:00 pm and a memorial service to follow at 2:30 pm. Potlucks and picnics were one of the things that Wanda really enjoyed. We think this meal is especially appropriate in honoring her. We are ready for 300 people. Please be here for the meal. At 2:30 we will give anyone and everyone the opportunity to share a story or memory of Wanda with the rest of us. We'll sing, we'll pray, we'll read scripture, we'll cry and we'll laugh. Please come and contribute to the service.

Memorial Gifts for Wanda Coriell

As published in the obituary, Wanda Coriell's family have asked that memorial gifts be given to the church in lieu of flowers. Envelopes have been prepared for these donations and are on the table in the foyer. Put your gift inside and drop in the offering box. Please include your name and address, gifts will be acknowledged to the family with a letter from the church.

Sunday	Wednesday
5/23 Jn 2:1-12	5/26 II Kgs 14-15 Jonah 1-4

5/30 Jn 2:13-22

Scheduled texts and teachers through the end of the year are posted on the church web page.

Father-Son Camp Out

Plans are being made for the 4th annual father-son camp out for Saturday, June 12. This will be a great opportunity for dads to spend some time with their sons and fellowship with each other. Please sign up on the sheet on the bulletin board. See Dewey Cordle or Rich Book for details.

Children's Bible Time in May

During the month of May the children in CBT will be having lessons that focus on money principles from the Bible. A collection will be made each Sunday to teach the children about giving to God. Would you be sure that your child has something to put in the collection when it is made? The monies collected will end up in the general collection for the church.

Special Youth Service

Our youth will be leading services the evening of May 30. Speaker will be Jacob Miller. The Lord's Army drama group will also give a short performance for the congregation after services.

VBS Help Needed

3 or 4 helpers are needed to assist in the 1st thru 3rd grade craft/activities projects during VBS. Please contact Jane Jennings if you are willing to help.

Teen Devo

Tuesday, 6:30 pm at Ike and Sharon Hardin's house.

Sunday PM Services

This evening we will be studying the 12th chapter of the John via the video.

Baccalaureate at MHS

Tonight at 7 pm the Minford Bible Club will be having the Baccalaureate Service at the High School. We did not receive notice of this service until Friday. Sorry we could not give more information sooner.

Office Copier for Sale

The church recently purchased a new copier and we are selling the old one. We are offering it first of all to people within the congregation. The machine is still in good condition and has been under a maintenance agreement continuously through May 1 of this year. $300. See Shaun McCray or Al Graff if you want to get further details.
