Vol. 39 — Issue 38

Make A Phone Call Monday

On Tuesday, September 28, the House of Representatives will be voting on the proposed Federal Marriage Amendment to the US Constitution. The amendment simply says that "marriage" is an institution reserved only for a man and a woman. A phone call tomorrow to Representative Ted Strickland's Wheelersburg office would be well timed. The phone number is 574-2676. Mr. Strickland is opposed to the amendment. He wants each individual state to make it's own laws on this issue. The problem is that homosexual couples from Massachusetts will undoubtedly come to Ohio to test the Ohio laws on this. Then the whole thing will be decided by a judge somewhere who could very well strike down the Ohio law as being unconstitutional. The only meaningful thing citizens can do on this issue is amend the US Constitution to settle once and for all that "marriage" refers exclusively to a male-female relationship. Pray and make your phone call tomorrow.

Special Contribution Today

As announced last week we are making a special collection today for those who have been hit by the recent flurry of hurricanes and flooding. The monies collected will be directed to the Disaster Relief Ministry (the same one that helped us in 1997). Disaster

Relief has already shipped out several tractor-trailer loads of emergency food supplies, etc. They are in dire need of financial help due to the overwhelming need. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, we will be passing the collection plates through the congregation. Be generous today for the glory of the Lord. Make checks to the Sunshine church of Christ. We will give a count of the collection before the end of services today.

Budget Time

Next weekend, our deacons and elders will be meeting at Fort Hill Christian Youth Camp to begin work on the 2005 budget for the church. This is part of what we do in our leadership planning retreat each year. If you have things that you believe should be considered for the 2005 budget, please find the appropriate deacon (consult the back of your bulletin to see the areas which each deacon is assigned) and talk with them about the need or project ASAP.

Tate Coming

October 3-5, Willard Tate will be with us for three days speaking and teaching on the theme: "You Can't Live Any Better Than You Can Love." We have exactly one week to get out the word and invite people to this special series of lessons. Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings we will have an alternative activity for the kids in the annex. We also have morning sessions at 10 am with a donut & coffee time at 9:30 am.

Socks Needed

We need your old socks. During the Tate meeting we will be having alternative activities in the annex for our kids. One thing we will be doing is having a "sock war." We need lots of pairs of old socks made into balls. Bring your socks in a bag and leave them in the annex. See Steve for details.

Workers Needed

On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings, we need six adult or teen workers in the annex to help manage the children. Sign up on the table in the foyer. See Steve for details.

Fall Hayride and Wiener Roast

Just around the corner--Saturday, October 9, 5:30 pm till 9:00 pm at Bud Coriell's place. Cider making, wiener roasting, lots of food. We have added a few new things this year: three musical groups, horseshoe contest, games, baking contest (categories = pies and cobblers, cakes, cookies, breads; see Irmalee Gampp for details). Winners of horseshoe contest and baking contest to be announced during picnic. Bring a covered dish and a lawn chair and come join the fun! Drinks, hot dogs and buns provided. See Bud Coriell for details.

Home Group Sign Up Begins

On the table in the foyer we have 9 pads laid out for the 9 Home Groups we will be having. Please go ahead and sign up for the group that you would like to attend. Men, if you would be willing to be a co-leader of one of the groups, find the pad on the table and sign up for that. Remember the purpose of these groups is outreach and not just fellowship and teaching. Pray that we keep our focus on the lost and that the Lord can use these groups to bring a harvest to Himself. There are cherry-colored invitation cards on the table in the foyer to use for this purpose.

Sunday PM Services

This evening Rich Book will be speaking.
