A Blessing to Others

Recently, I heard a story about a student from Scotland, who was admitted into the prestigious Oxford University, and was living in the dormitory residence in his first year there. His clan was so excited that one of their own had made it into the upper class of education, but they were concerned how he would do in that "strange land." After the first month at school, his mother came to visit.

She asked her son, "And how do you find the English students?"

"Mother," he replied in his thick brogue, "they're such terrible, noisy people. The one on that side keeps banging something against the wall, and won't stop. The one on the other side screams and screams and screams, away into the night."

"How do you manage to put up with all these awful noisy English neighbors?"

"I do nothing. I just ignore them. I just stay in my room and play my bagpipes..."

Sometimes it helps to realize that when we find people to be so irritating, it may well be that they find us to be the same (and perhaps for better reason). Even deeds done with the best of intentions can be irritating.

Solomon said, "He who blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it will be counted a curse to him" (Proverbs 27:14).

I suppose we could ask ourselves the question, "What am I doing that may be irritating others around me?" But we might be better served to ask it in a more positive way: "What am I doing to be a blessing to others around me?"

"A man has joy by the answer of his mouth, and a word spoken in due season, how good it is!" (Proverbs 15:23).

Thanksgiving Service November 28

As in the past we have a special service planned for the Sunday after Thanksgiving. Four of our men in the congregation will be taking a few minutes each to offer in a public way their thanks and praise to the Father for the blessings which they have received from His Hand. This is always a great service. The Children's Bible Time will not meet on this day. Everyone stays in the auditorium.

Sunday PM Home Groups Continue

Our Sunday PM Home Groups continue this evening and through November 14, five Sundays in all. The groups meet from about 6:30 pm till around 8 or 8:30 pm in 9 different locations. One group meets here at the building. The other 8 groups meet in homes of our members. A few of our homes still have room for more people. Check the list in the foyer. The material we are using for the teaching is from a video series entitled Making Things Right by Paul Faulkner. These groups are a great way to get to know people better. Tonight's lesson is Keep Cool Even When You Are Hot.
