A Day in the Life of Jesus

Work is hard sometimes, one may even say it is unbearable. We have a savior that can identify with us in so many ways. He was hungry. He was thirsty. He was angry. He was tempted. He had a pretty demanding job at times. His occupation of being "Savior of the World" led to his healing of many.

In Mark 1:22-35, Jesus began teaching in the synagogue. He healed a man afterward. He then later healed Simon Peter's mother-in-law at her house. That evening, he wasn't able to rest at the five o'clock whistle. He continued to work. For the whole town gathered at Peter's house. He healed many more and drove out demons. We think sometimes that Jesus might not know how we feel after a hard day of work. Our bosses ask us to do the miraculous sometimes, but at least we don't have to drive out demons. Okay, you can now insert a joke about your boss who may act like a demon on occasion.

I want all of us to see a parallel between the work of Jesus and our job duties. Early the next morning (Mark 1:35), Jesus got up and went to a solitary place to pray. Jesus prayed after his exhausting day of work. There are many other times when Jesus goes off to pray. Jesus needed time alone with his heavenly Father. We do too. We cannot successfully tackle our jobs alone, whether that job is a peanut butter sandwich inspector, traveling salesman, or 11th grade student. Many of us think we don't need God's help. Many of us refuse to take time out of our day to plead to God for help or to praise him for helping us through a tough day. I've been guilty of this. I vow to do better... will you also make this same vow?

Welcome to all of our scouts and their parents and family! We are glad to have you with us today to mark Scout Sunday here at Sunshine. At the end of our service today (after our prayer) we will take a few minutes to recognize the leaders and members of the pack here at Sunshine and hear a few words about the program. All are invited to stay and participate in these few moments.

Rejoice!

This past Wednesday morning, Erica Sorrell confessed Christ and was baptized in his name here at the building. We rejoice with her in her obedience to gospel commands of Jesus himself. Erica is the sister of Stephanie Miller and lives in Minford. Erica's son, Darien (6 yrs) has also been coming to church with her. Give her and Darien a big Sunshine welcome today.
