Scout Sunday Coming

Sunday, February 4, is Scout Sunday all across the United States of America. Sunshine is a sponsor of a Cub Scout Pack (Pack One) and a Boy Scout Troop (Troop 1) for the Minford community. On Tuesday and Thursday evenings each week these groups have their meetings in our building. The "point men" for the scouting program here at Sunshine are Steve Williams, Jack Jennings and Tom Kelley. On February 4, we will have parents and scouts visiting with us and we will take a few minutes to recognize the work that is being done with our young men through the scouting program.

Project 2010 at FHCYC

Fort Hill Christian Youth Camp is currently engaged in a long-range plan to improve the facilities and operation of Fort Hill Camp. We have an information card in the tract rack in the back that tells the various ways that we can be part of this long-range improvement plan. One facet of the plan is designed to raise money for the camp: special engraved bricks are going to be laid in the flag circle in front of the dining hall at camp. For a donation of $100.00 you can memorialize or honor a friend or loved one on one of these engraved bricks. Pick up the information card to get details or talk to our local FHCYC board member, Jack Jennings.

2007 Directory Review

Today is the deadline for checking the directory information which will be used in our 2007 directory. The sheets are laid out on the table in the foyer. Make corrections by your name. Initial the information so that Gary Glispie will know that you have looked at the sheets. The sheets will be available this evening till the end of services.

What's New in the Library?

Boundaries in Dating. By Henry Cloud and John Townsend. Discover how to take responsibility for your life, behavior, and values as God intended. Honesty, freedom, respect, self-control are among the topics that are discussed from a biblical perspective.

Boy Meets Girl. By Josh Harris. This is the follow up to Harris's first book, I Kissed Dating Goodbye (which is also a new addition to our library). Harris takes a novel approach to the whole business of dating and offers a way to avoid the pitfalls that so many young people fall into in their dating relationships.

On Mondays and Thursdays for the next few weeks we would like to be able to provide food for Sharon and Randy Rogers while Sharon is laid up with her broken leg. She would appreciate calls and cards. Sharon Rogers, 5976 Millers Run-Fallen Timber Rd; Lucasville, OH 45648, ☎820-3237

KNIFE THROWING!

I woke the other morning to a banging sound which was reminiscent of a dog scratching on a door. After a few moments I realized it was my mother stuck in the bathroom, gently tapping and enquiring if anyone was available to help her!

Being a helpful daughter I leapt out of bed and ran out onto the landing to see how I could assist. My father had gone to find various chiseling implements along with some oil in an attempt to loosen the fixed door catch.

After some arguments and debate between those of us who were not trapped about the best method to free our distressed mother, I ran out into the garden in my pajamas, in the rain, and began throwing knives up at the window!

This wasn't my attempt at a career change (a knife thrower with a circus), but rather my trying to get a knife to my Mum so she could pry her way out! After a couple of tries (please note: don't try this at home!), a knife made it through the window and after her 20 minute wait my Mum escaped.

In life we can feel trapped. We can sense that where we are at is it. God can be like my Mum gently tapping on the door saying, 'Anyone there?!' Equally we can be asking God 'are you there?'

God's small voice is there even in the darkest of places, as well as in the times of joy, always wanting to take us deeper into His love. Thank you Lord that you are available to talk to us and advise us any time day or night, and that we don't get a busy signal when we call!

— Maria Toth

Get Ready For Impact!

Teens, be thinking about whether you're going to attend Impact this year or not. We will be sending in our registration very soon and we need a definite commitment from you one way or another. If you say you're going, be sure you mean it. Look for a sign-up list to appear soon!

Youth Rally

Our rally this year is April 27-29. The theme will be "Space" this time, so be thinking about possible costumes, skits, decorations, etc. It won't be long before we'll be asking for your help in getting everything ready!
