Praise For The Lord

Recently, after a routine mammogram, it was thought that I needed to have a biopsy. Immediately, I requested prayer from special “warriors” in my life and the elders of this congregation. One faithful friend reminded me of our Lord’s words, “Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?” Even though I had to constantly remind myself of that, even saying it out loud over and over, I was determined to trust Him, no matter what. The Lord was so gracious to me. The results that I received recently were all okay! I would like to think that no matter what the results, I would still praise our great God, Jehovah. Paul puts it like this, “...for I have learned to be content, whatever the circumstances. I can do everything through him who gives me strength.” Philippians 4:11 and 13.

I confess I am a long way from the faith of Paul. But each time the tests of life come, I hope that I am getting stronger as a result of those things in my life. Sometimes, when things don’t happen like we want, we get “crusty” and angry at the Lord. We don’t understand why these things are happening to us or others. I have been there also at times in my life. I guess it is our nature to question and ask why? We “see through a glass darkly.” The workings of the Lord in our lives are not always clear to us. As Steve said in a sermon once, sometimes, when we don’t know the “why” of circumstances in our lives, we must simply trust and one day God may pull back a curtain and say, “See, this is what I have been doing.” But, until He pulls that curtain back, it is clear in His word that He wants us to remain faithful, trusting Him through all things. I confess, it is hard and I don’t always succeed. But when I do, I know He has spread His wings over and around me and I am His and He loves me.

— Judi Allison.

Pictures, Anyone?

She is our official church photographer and makes it a point to always have her camera with her for any service, class or event. No appointment necessary. No advance notice necessary. Just smile and she will take care of the rest. By the way, we need several pictures to be made for the 66 Club Tree. Check the tree and see if your child is one of them.
