Faith

I was reading through the gospels last night, seeing Jesus wandering around healing people. This got me to thinking, how could he heal people and then just leave them? I mean, he did it over and over. I know he was always on his disciples for their lack of faith. Could it be that he had the faith to know that the healing in the name of God would be enough. Did he have the faith to believe that some time, some day, that healing would lead them to a relationship with God?

Now, I know some would say, "Well, Jesus only had a limited amount of time." No, he was God in the flesh. He could have spent another twenty or thirty years here with us if he thought it necessary. Obviously he did not think it necessary. Obviously he had the faith to know we would be alright with what he did. So I guess I'm wondering about my faith. Do I have the faith to believe that if I do what little I can, will it be enough to make a difference in God's work? Or am I just spinning my wheels and wasting my time and money?

As we see in Nehemiah, Satan can try to distract God's people with doubt and ridicule. It takes a strong people with great commitment and lots of faith to think we can get the task done. If I were working on that wall, carrying buckets of sand for the mortar mix, it would take a great deal of faith on my part to think we were ever going to get it done just relying on my efforts. I can't see everything going on around me if I stay focused on my task and get it done. It takes faith!

Veterans Day Tribute at End of Services

This morning after the AM service we are going to take about 10 minutes to honor those who have served in the military in service to the citizens of the United States. After the closing prayer, we will have a short break (about 3 minutes) and then two music-video presentations will be shown on the screen up front. Terry Sullivan (one of our veterans) will have a few comments to make and will then lead us in a dismissal prayer at the conclusion of the tribute.

Baby Shower for Zoe

Saturday, December 1, 2007, here at the building. See Julie Miller or Stephanie Copas if you would like to help with the shower.

Thanksgiving Service

The Sunday after Thanksgiving (November 25), we have a tradition where 4 or 5 men in the congregation take a few minutes to thank and praise the Lord before the congregation for the many ways that God has blessed them. In the past this has included specific examples of prayers answered, people through whom God has ministered to and blessed them, etc., or things of a more universal nature, such as the wonders of creation or a specific scripture or promise found in the Bible. Let's strive for 100% attendance on November 25. By the way, Children's Bible Time will not meet on November 25. We want our children to see and hear Dad or Grandpa or Uncle Bob praising the Lord.

Community Thanksgiving Service

We are invited to participate in the Community Thanksgiving Service hosted by 2nd Presbyterian Church (801 Waller) on Saturday, November 18, 6 pm. Clark Hess will be speaking and Stan Workman will be directing the community choir.

House Needed

We received a phone call this week from a family connected to the Woodsfield church of Christ who are moving to our area. It's Jason and Donna Henthorn. They have 3 small children ranging in age from 1-9 years. Jason will be working at the Juvenile Detention Facility in Franklin Furnace. His job begins November 25. They are looking for a 3 bedroom house to rent somewhere in the Minford area or close by. They have already decided they are coming here for services. If you know of something available for rent, you can call Jason or Donna at 937-209-2585.

Library News

It's that time of year again when we do an annual inventory to see what we have and what might be missing. Please return all library materials including books, DVDs, etc., as soon as possible. Julie M.

Teen Devo

Tuesday, 6:30 pm at Terry and Debbie's.

Thank You

To everyone who helped with the Senior Ambassador's Banquet last evening. The food was delicious, the decorations and table arrangements were bright and cheerful and the seniors who attended had a pleasant evening with our young people.

Christmas Boxes to Shipped

We are still about $600.00 short on covering the cost of shipping for our Christmas Boxes to Haiti and to Samaritan's Purse. Give contributions (or checks made out to Sunshine) to Candi Gampp or deposit them in the Offering Box labeled for Christmas Boxes.

Haiti Hit by Noel

We have received more news from Haiti through Rick Fyffe, President of Hope for Haiti's Children. The flooding and destruction from Noel has been severe. Several families and children being served through HFHC have been affected there is an appeal being made for donations to provide water, clothing, emergency shelter and food. More info on donations to come.

Lost Bibles and Other Things

On the table in the foyer this morning is a display of all the Bibles and other stuff that has apparently been lost in our building recently. Please stop by and get your things, especially your Bible.

The Golden Compass: Not a Children's Movie

This December, a "children's movie" is scheduled for release written by Phillip Pullman, a well known atheist. Parents, check out this movie yourself before you permit your children to watch it. The series of books upon which the movie is based are written from an atheist point of view.

Card Ministry News

If any ladies of the congregation would like to help out with the Women's Connection Card Ministry, please see Julie Miller. One month a year, you would send out birthday cards to the ladies of the congregation that have birthdays that month. Postage is supplied so don't let that hinder you from helping out! Also, if you have recently started attending Sunshine, please give Stephanie Copas or Julie Miller your birthday information so that you can be added to our list. Thanks!
