And henceforth it came to pass, we undertook an expedition into the deepest recesses of the furnace compartment adjacent to the adolescent room. Overcoming, the darkness, aromas of unknown origins, and various other perils not for the faint of heart, the hieroglyphical records, long believed lost, were unearthed. Whence forth, concealed within the bindings were accounts of perplexing rituals of roasting wild boars, consuming berried pastries without utensils or appendages whilst blinded with colorful cloths, and modes of transportation involving carts with one wheel... In other words we found some old pictures in the teen room closet. While the pictures predated my time with this congregation, they were a great reminder of its history. In 2 Kings 22 there is a record of a much more important uncovering of history.

In 2 Kings 22:3-7 King Josiah gives the command to repair the temple which had fallen into disarray during a time of wicked leadership (including the time of Josiah's father and grandfather). While this work was progressing a priceless discovery was made.

Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of the LORD." He gave it to Shaphan, who read it...Then Shaphan the secretary informed the king, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king. When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his robes (2 Kings 22:8,10-11).

What we see here is history that should never have been. How could this have happened? How do you misplace God's word? The answer is simple--The Israelites had forgotten Whose children they were. The most important document of their time had ended up dust-covered and forgotten. The Word of God is not something that should sit idly by, whether that is in some dusty box in a crumbling building or on a shelf or nightstand. The word of God is alive, at least that is how it is meant to be in our lives. For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart (Hebrews 4:12). Here we have a description of something that cries out for action. "To arms!" it echoes, "Take God's living Word and make part of you. Let it be your protection, your guide and your priceless tool!"

Hence, the danger lies and I giveth to you this warning--If thou doth not maketh God's Word an active part of thy living temple, then thy temple shall incur like disrepair as was described in the earthly abode of God in good King Josiah's day.
