"Love must be sincere... Be devoted to one another in brotherly love... patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Share with God's people who are in need... mourn with those who mourn."
Romans 12:9-15

I used to think that when someone was grieving, it was my job to try to cheer them up. Recently I lost my father and now I understand this passage better. When we lose someone close to us, it creates an emptiness within us. Even if we know the departed is in a better place, we still feel a loss.

Why does Paul say to mourn with those who mourn? What is the benefit in this?

"When Job's three friends, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite, heard about all the troubles that had come upon him, they set out from their homes and met together by agreement to go and sympathize with him and comfort him. When they saw him from a distance, they could hardly recognize him; they began to weep aloud, and they tore their robes and sprinkled dust on their heads. Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him, because they saw how great his suffering was."
Job 2:11-13

Job's friends started off right. For seven days they shared with Job in his suffering.

When we grieve over the loss of a loved one, we are grieving over the loss of a close relationship; the intimacy we share, the love, sharing of ideas, shared activities, all over. We grieve about the time we wasted, of what could have been, our twisted priorities.

When we cry with those we love, we are agreeing with their suffering. We are acknowledging the greatness of their loss. We are saying you have a right to weep. We have lost a wonderful person.

When someone experiences a loss, the best thing we can do is give them a hug and say, "I'm sorry."

Directory Surveys Needed

It's been about a month since we issued the call for every family to update their information for the new directory. Blank forms are on the table in the foyer. Also there is a box into which completed forms can be deposited. If you have not updated one of these forms for your family, please do so today before you leave and help us get this information gathered up.

Kitchen Cleaners Needed

The first week of every month, we need a volunteer to clean the kitchen. This should take 30-45 minutes. A check list will be provided to use as a guideline. Your efforts will not be judged, just appreciated. Sign up sheet is on the bulletin board. Thank you to all the ladies who have been doing this service for the past 7 months. Great job!!!

Mission Opportunity

We have an opportunity to participate in mission work in Honduras. A Sunshine trip is being planned for May 14-21, 2009. The work will primarily involve physical activities (e.g., building simple shelters, building/repairing roads); however, there will also be work that is physically less demanding. Anyone interested will be able to participate. Please consider going on this trip. It is a tremendous opportunity to see how God is working in other parts of the world. It will also be a wonderful shared experience for those who go. More information coming soon! In the meantime, you can direct questions to Dewey Cordle, Jamie Riley or Jason Coriell.

Secret Sisters Meeting

Saturday, October 4, 5 pm, the Secret Sisters are having a carry-in dinner here at the building in the Annex. We plan to collect the goody bags at this meeting. Every Secret Sister is encouraged to attend. If you were unable to be at the meeting and still want to participate in the service project (making goody bags for needy students) please see Mandi or autumn today.

Women's Retreat Deadline

November 7 and 8. Sign up sheets and detailed handouts are on the table in the foyer. Due to the fact that our craft leaders need to order materials in advance, sign up for this retreat needs to be completed by the Sunday evening services on October 5. No cooking or dishwashing allowed. Some of our guys have volunteered for KP duty.

Spirit Club Meeting

Tonight at 6 pm.

Christmas Shoe Boxes for Children

To those interested in sending shoe boxes to underprivileged children in Haiti and third-world countries this year, it is time to get started. The first thing I would like to say is "thank you" for helping to send over 80 shoe boxes last year. This year I would like to concentrate on sending the basic needs over with just one toy. The need for shoes and clothes far outweighs the need for a bunch of toys. If we could concentrate on just getting one pair of light weight shoes, underwear and a t-shirt and a pair of shorts, I think that would benefit the children so much more than a bunch of candy and toys. Another goal is for us to gather as many of these boxes as possible so that we can reach more children. We will be assembling boxes on Saturday, November 1 to be shipped on the following Monday, November 3. If you have any questions, call Candi Gampp at 820-3545. Note from Steve: The shipping cost for a box to Haiti has gone up this year to $14.00 a box plus what it will take to get them to Tennessee. I realize that shipping the box will cost almost as much as what's in the box, but the need in Haiti is greater than ever due to the 4 hurricanes that swept over the island this past month. Hope for Haiti's Children, the group through which we have been working in Haiti, has over 600 children in their program. We would like to see every child in the program get one of these boxes. Thank you for sacrificing for these children.

Sunshine Men's Retreat

Men, pick up the schedule for the Men's Retreat from the table in the foyer. Also, those of you who have signed up, would you indicate if you would be willing to sleep in an unheated cabin, please?
