During the course of World War II, many people gained fame in one way or another. One man was Butch O'Hare.

He was a fighter pilot assigned to an aircraft carrier in the Pacific. One time his entire squadron was assigned to fly a particular mission. After he was airborne, he looked at his fuel gauge and realized that someone had forgotten to top off his fuel tank. Because of this, he would not have enough fuel to complete his mission and get back to his ship. His flight leader told him to leave formation and return.

As he was returning to the mother ship, he could see a squadron of Japanese Zeroes heading toward the fleet to attack. And with all the fighter planes gone, the fleet was almost defenseless. His was the only opportunity to distract and divert them.

Single-handedly, he dove into the formation of Japanese planes and attacked them. The American fighter planes were rigged with cameras, so that as they flew and fought, pictures were taken so pilots could learn more about the terrain, enemy maneuvers, etc. Butch dove at them and shot until all his ammunition was gone, then he would dive and try to clip off a wing or tail or anything that would make the enemy planes unfit to fly. He did anything he could to keep them from reaching the American ships.

Finally, the Japanese squadron took off in another direction, and Butch O'Hare and his fighter, both badly shot up, limped back to the carrier. He told his story, but not until the film from the camera on his plane was developed, did they realize the extent he really went to to protect his fleet. He was recognized as a hero, was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor, and Chicago's O'Hare Airport was named after him.

Prior to this time in Chicago, there was a man named Easy Eddie. He was working for a man you've all heard about, Al Capone. Al Capone wasn't famous for anything heroic, but he was notorious for the murders he'd committed and the illegal things he'd done. Easy Eddie was Al Capone's lawyer and he was very good. In fact, because of his skill, he was able to keep Al Capone out of jail. To show his appreciation, Al Capone paid him very well.

Aaron Salyers will be having surgery to restore his cranium on November 10 at St. Mary's in Huntington.

Jerry Klaiber (friend of Brandi Gampp) was involved in serious motorcycle accident last week.

Alex Cram's latest eye exam reveals some improvement in his peripheral vision. The eye surgery is being postponed for about 6 weeks for further testing and to see if there is any more improvement.

Wes Lyon had knee surgery on Friday in Huntington.

Rodney Lens (Northwest HS student and friend of Rachel Jarvis) is battling brain cancer. He was treated previously but the cancer has returned.

Women's Retreat Update

Tentative room assignments are now available on the table in the foyer. If you need to make adjustments to the room assignments that is fine, just mark the sheets as they should be. Everything else is on track. We are looking forward to a unique experience for our women at the Gimme A Break Retreat. Questions, see Rhonda Berry or Serena Miller.

Flu Shots Today

Flu and pneumonia shots are available today in the annex before and after our morning service. As always, we will deliver to our homebound who request the vaccinations. Medicare billing will be available. Flu shots are $15.00 and pneumonia shots are $30.00. Questions, see Kristin Cordle or Aaron Kallner.

Mentors Needed

Judge Kirsch is looking for women who are willing to serve as mentors for girls in the Juvenile Court system. These are girls who lack some of the basic life skills needed to live productively in society. This does not require any counseling training or special skills. To learn more, talk with John Berry. John is working with Judge Kirsch as a magistrate.

Lily Chapel Painting Project

The Lily Chapel church is needing help getting their building scraped and painted. For dates and details see Caleb Miller or call Mike Lemon at 574-5803.

100% Sunday Report

Well, 92% isn't bad. It's not 100% but we are thankful for the fact that those who were here gave 100% of themselves to the activities of the day. And what a day it was. Our attendance was 359 which is the largest we have had since I have been here. The worship service was a great blessing to all of us who were in attendance. The picture turned out great. You can still get copies of the picture. The extra's are on the table in the foyer. $2/picture. Put your money in the offering box. The same goes for the commemorative cups. $5/cup. Put your money in the offering box. Thanks again to all those who worked hard to take care of the physical details of the day. We are looking forward now to the year 2012, when we will be celebrating our 100th year of existence as a congregation. Instead of 100% Sunday, that day will be 100 Year Sunday. We are beginning now to collect memorabilia for an historic display for the 100th anniversary. Start digging out your old pictures and books and records and relics from days gone by and we will spend some time honoring and remembering those who have blazed the trail for us in the Sunshine church of Christ.

Spirit Club Meeting

Tonight at 6 pm.

Fall Costume Party

Friday, October 31, at 7 pm in the Sunshine Annex. Bring finger foods. Everyone is invited.

Surveys Still Out

There are two surveys currently in progress for the congregation. We would like to wrap up both surveys by the end of October at the very latest. One is the Directory Survey which will update all of the information to be published in the New Pictorial Directory. Blank copies of the survey are on the table in the foyer. A box is placed there for you to deposit your completed form.

Also we have the Service/Ministry Survey (Green Sheet) which we started last Sunday. About half of the congregation has responded thus far. This survey is your chance to get more involved in serving the Lord and more involved with this congregation. Blank forms are in the foyer. We would like to have a completed form from every Christian attending this church. Thanks.

Christmas Shoe Box Update

Don't forget, November 1 at 6 pm at the building is our time and place to put together our Gift Shoe Boxes for the children in Haiti. Food and snacks will be provided. By the way, Walmart is having a sale on Crocks (sp), shoes for kids, for $5/pair. Anyone who may not want to make up a box but would be willing to help out with the shipping costs of the boxes, give your money to Candi Gampp. We are also needing any empty shoe boxes you may have at the house. Please bring them to the Annex and stack them on the tall counters by the windows. Also, if any of you have larger boxes, like what a TV would come in, something that would hold 10-20 shoe boxes, would you bring those boxes in also and leave them by the tall counters by the windows. Thanks. Candi.

He not only earned big money, he would get extra things, like a residence that filled an entire Chicago City block. The house was fenced, and he had live-in help and all of the conveniences of the day.

Easy Eddie had a son. He loved his son and gave him all the best things while he was growing up; clothes, cars, and a good education. And because he loved his son, he tried to teach him right from wrong. But one thing he couldn't give his son was a good name, and a good example. Easy Eddie decided that this was much more important than all the riches he had given him. So, he went to the authorities in order to rectify the wrong he had done.

In order to tell the truth, it meant he must testify against Al Capone, and he knew that Al Capone would do his best to have him killed. But he wanted most of all to try to be an example and to do the best he could to give back to his son, a good name. So he testified. Within the year, he was shot and killed on a lonely street in Chicago.

This sounds like two unrelated stories. But, you see, Butch O'Hare was Easy Eddie's son.

"A good name is more desirable than great riches; to be esteemed is better than silver or gold." (Proverbs 22:1)
