A Proclamation of Thanksgiving

Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection and favor; and Whereas both Houses of Congress have, by their joint committee, requested me to "recommend to the people of the United States a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many and signal favors of Almighty God, especially by affording them an opportunity peaceably to establish a form of government for their safety and happiness:"

Now, therefore, I do recommend and assign Thursday, the 26th day of November next, to be devoted by the people of these States to the service of that great and glorious Being who is the beneficent author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be; that we may then all unite in rendering unto Him our sincere and humble thanks for His kind care and protection of the people of this country previous to their becoming a nation; for the signal and manifold mercies and the favorable interpositions of His providence in the course and conclusion of the late war; for the great degree of tranquility, union, and plenty which we have since enjoyed; for the peaceable and rational manner in which we have been enabled to establish constitutions of government for our safety and happiness, and particularly the national one now lately instituted for the civil and religious liberty with which we are blessed, and the means we have of acquiring and diffusing useful knowledge; and, in general, for all the great and various favors which He has been pleased to confer upon us.

And also that we may then unite in most humbly offering our prayers and supplications to the great Lord and Ruler of Nations and beseech Him to pardon our national and other transgressions; to enable us all, whether in public or private stations, to perform our several and relative duties properly and punctually; to render our National Government a blessing to all the people by constantly being a Government of wise, just, and constitutional laws, discreetly and faithfully executed and obeyed; to protect and guide all sovereigns and nations (especially such as have shown kindness to us), and to bless them with good governments, peace, and concord; to promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue, and the increase of science among them and us; and, generally to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as He alone knows to be best.

Given under my hand, at the city of New York, the 3d day of October, A.D. 1789.

— G. Washington

Prayer Requests

For our nation as we are going through troubled times
For our national leaders and world leaders as they lead their respective nations.

For our troops in Afghanistan, Bosnia, Korea, Iraq, Liberia, Haiti and other places.

For the innocent who are suffering in the midst of war.

For the "people in the box"-- the lost in our families and community.

For those who are being martyred and persecuted for Christ in our own time

For marriage to stand in our laws as God ordained it.

For the church in Siliguri and Naresh Chetri

For the churches in Honduras and Haiti who partner with us in the gospel

Todd Fulkerson (Special Forces in Afghanistan--known to Gabe Coriell)

Toni Ruch is at home in Memphis doing well in her recuperation.

Kylie Berry had her eye surgery on Friday at St. Joseph Hospital in Lexington. All went well with the surgery. She is now home having to keep her face down for the next week so that the surgery heals properly. In about 6 weeks we will know how successful the surgery has been. Pray for Kylie and her family.

Steve Miller remains at home trying to recuperate from a back injury.

Marzelle Gardner (Julie Miller's grandmother) is now in the nursing home and adjusting to her new home.

Mary Marshall (friend of Ruth and Janine Morris) will be having hernia surgery at Jewish Hospital in St. Louis, MO on Tuesday.

Karren Griffith came home from OSU Hospital this week after a pacemaker was installed. She is on new meds and is waiting to see if they work well or not. Keep praying for her healing.

Carolyn Walker (teacher at Minford Middle School) has been diagnosed with bone cancer and is starting treatment right away.

Duane Adkins (Chuck Jarvis's brother in law) was hospitalized this past week with pneumonia.

Sean McCray had surgery on his hip this week in Columbia, SC. All went well and he was able to come home yesterday.

Melissa Shannon (coworker with Beth Miller at Sciotoville Community Schools and mother to an infant) has been diagnosed with Stage 2 cancer. Prayers are requested.

Sherry Lawson's mother (friend of Melissa Gamp) was taken to the ER on Saturday evening with signs of a stroke.

Shaun Young was taken to the ER on Friday morning for a viral infection. He has lost 10 pounds in the last two weeks due to the illness.

Budget Time at Sunshine

Between now and December 1, our deacons will be gathering budget requests and information from the congregation in order to construct a budget for 2010. If you are a ministry leader/coordinator, be sure to check in with your deacon to make sure they know how much you need and for what purpose for 2010. If you have new requests/ideas to be considered for 2010, see the deacon in charge of that area and give him the information.

Fourth Sunday PM Preaching

Don't forget that this evening is our 4th Sunday preaching service. Everyone from junior high through adult are invited to stay in the auditorium. Children's classes will be meeting. Tyler Jones will be our speaker this evening.

Special Thanksgiving Service

Sunday, November 29, our morning services will be dedicated to thanking and praising the Lord for the blessings which He has poured out on us. As in the past, four of our men from Sunshine will be sharing with the congregation the special ways that God has blessed them and their families. This is always a service that we look forward to because the people in front of us usually are not people we hear from. The four men who will be speaking for us are Roger Cooper, Jon Coriell, Shane Mougey and Todd Borland. Pray for these guys and for the service that day. We are expecting a great day of worship and praise and thanksgiving.

Homeless Shelter Needs

There are currently about 20 people in the county Homeless Shelter—5 are children: 3 boys ages 4,6, and 10 and 2 toddlers. The shelter is currently needing the following items: toilet paper, paper towels, dish soap, cleaning supplies, large garbage bags, personal hygiene supplies and food items such as milk, bread, juice, cereal, etc. If you have any questions see June Book.

Strawberry Point Trip

If you are reasonably certain that you will be coming on the Strawberry Point Christian Youth Camp Mission trip in June, 2010, please signup on the list in the foyer or contact Caleb Miller (820-3116) or calebjmiller@hotmail.com. This information will be necessary to create a budget for the trip. Deadline is Sunday, November 22.
