About Veteran's Day

Many Americans mistakenly believe that Veterans Day is the day America sets aside to honor American military personnel who died in battle or as a result of wounds sustained from combat. That's not quite true. Memorial Day is the day set aside to honor America's war dead.

Veterans Day, on the other hand, honors ALL American veterans, both living and dead. In fact, Veterans Day is largely intended to thank LIVING veterans for dedicated and loyal service to their country. November 11 of each year is the day that we ensure veterans know that we deeply appreciate the sacrifices they have made in the lives to keep our country free

In 1921, the United States of America laid to rest the remains of a World War I American soldier on a Virginia hillside overlooking the city of Washington DC and the Potomac River. This site became known as the "Tomb of the Unknown Soldier," and today is called the "Tomb of the Unknowns."

November 11th officially became known as Armistice Day through an act of Congress in 1926. 12 years later, through a similar act Armistice Day became a national holiday.

The entire World thought that World War I was the "War to end all wars." Had this been true, the holiday might still be called Armistice Day today. That dream was shattered in 1939 when World War II broke out in Europe. More than 400,000 American service members died during that horrific war.

In 1947, Raymond Weeks, of Birmingham Ala., organized a "Veterans Day" parade on November 11th to honor all of America's veterans for their loyal and dedicated service. Shortly thereafter, Congressman Edward H. Rees (Kansas) introduced legislation to change the name of Armistice Day to Veterans Day in order to honor all veterans who have served the United States in all wars.

In 1954, President Eisenhower signed a bill proclaiming November 11 as Veterans Day, and called upon Americans everywhere to rededicate themselves to the cause of peace. He issued a Presidential Order to organize and oversee the national observance of Veterans Day.

Congress passed legislation in 1968 to move Veterans Day to the fourth Monday in October. However it became apparent that November 11th was historically significant to many Americans and Congress reversed itself by returning it to its traditional date in 1978.

Coats will be purchased first, then with any leftover money, Joy of Giving will take place. Please give money to Kristine Coriell, Eugene Risner, or drop it in an offering box in an envelope marked "Coats for Kids."

Annual Thanksgiving Service

The Sunday after Thanksgiving we traditionally have four of our men give their personal thanks and praise to the Lord before the congregation. Sunday, November 28 is Thanksgiving Sunday this year. Our four men who will be speaking are John Gampp, Caleb Miller, David Rice and Mike Gampp. Be ready for a great service of thanks and praise.

Veterans' Sunday Today

At the conclusion of our services this morning we will take a few minutes to honor the veterans and active duty men and women connected to our congregation who have served in the military.
