How Do I Cope?

The other day I told my wife that I was not sure I could be a Christian and continue the paying job I have. Have you ever thought like that?

Some days just don't go right and you flair up at someone for some reason. Your blood pressure begins to rise. You just don't feel good about how you handled that one. The problem is that the next day the same kind of thing happens, maybe a little differently, but not much, and the old blood pressure rises again and you don't feel good about how you handled that one either. Eventually, you begin to act in the same negative way for non-reasons, all the time.

How is a Christian supposed to handle things that don't go just right? I think that is the question that I need to pursue and maybe you do, too. As I see it, the problem is really bad when we don't evaluate, when we think that we are just going to act like that regardless.

I have had my share lately of rethinking how I responded. I could say it comes in the family, but I would not be totally honest in saying that, because I am responsible for how I act, and I can't blame it on my blood kin.

I have always thought it would be very easy to be a Christian when living among Christians, or maybe when living as a hermit. But is that realistic? Can we hope to live in a world where we are not challenged -- just a little bit? I don't see that happening.

I think of Paul's admonition: "Get rid of bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of

For our nation as we are going through troubled times

For our national leaders and world leaders as they lead their respective nations.

For our troops in Afghanistan, Bosnia, Korea, Iraq, Liberia, Haiti and other places.

For the innocent who are suffering in the midst of war.

For the “people in the box”-- the lost in our families and community.

For those who are being martyred and persecuted for Christ in our own time

For marriage to stand in our laws as God ordained it.

For the church in Siliguri and Naresh Chetri Tom Kelley and Jason Coriell now in India visiting the church in Siliguri.

For the churches in Honduras and Haiti who partner with us in the gospel

Tamera Green waiting for results of biopsy

Henry Coriell home now.

Tim Wolfe dealing with a severe back injury; surgery not feasible.

Kayla Meredith still suffering with severe breathing problems—a mighty chorus of prayer needed.

Lainey Parker a tentative surgery date of December 15.

Carol Gammon (Bill's daughter and Price's sister in South Carolina) now in Houston receiving special treatments for cancer; home this week.

Eric Copas has been suffering for several months with back pain. Surgery scheduled December 29.

Arthur Sullivan (Terry's father) remains in SOMC with abdominal problems

Esther Crisp scheduled to get results from tests this past week.

Jim Jacobs had successful cataract surgery this week.

Disaster Relief Report Tonight

This evening Dwane Casteel of the Disaster Relief Effort based in Nashville, Tn will be with us to bring us up to date on this ministry. We have been supporting this effort since 1997. We would like to have all classes from junior high on up in the auditorium for this report. Teachers of lower grades can decide for themselves whether to bring the class into the auditorium.

Christmas Progam

Christmas is quickly approaching. First practice for the Christmas Program is Dec. 4th. There is a sign-up sheet in the foyer if you are interested in participating in this year's program. If you have any questions see Jamie Riley or Aaron McCray for more details.

No Children's Bible Time Next Sunday

Due to the special nature of the service next Sunday we will not be having CBT. Children will remain in the auditorium with their parents.

Spirit Club

Meeting tonight at 6 p.m.

Fellowship Lunch Today

We will be having a fellowship lunch following morning services this morning. We have a lot to be thankful for, and one thing is our family here at Sunshine. Come and enjoy some fellowship and a celebration of harvest. We hope to have the harvest completed for the Hunger Relief Crop and a report on its success!!!

Welcome Back Tom and Jason

Tom Kelley and Jason Coriell returned yesterday from a 12 day trip to Siliguri where we have helped to establish a congregation with the help of Naresh Chetri. Tom and Jason made the trip to gather information for some important decisions that need to be made. They will be giving us a report on their trip during our morning service today.

Thanksgiving Service on November 27

The Sunday after Thanksgiving each year, 4 of our men thank and praise the Lord for blessings which they have received from the Lord. This year our four men will be Eugene Risner, Jimmy Forbes, Jonas Thacker and Tracey Morales. Pray for this service and for these men as they offer their thanksgiving to the Lord.

Deacons Meeting Tonight

After services tonight in the annex, the 2012 budget will be the topic for discussion.

New Copier

We now have a new color copier in the office. The controls on it are very similar to our previous copier, so most of you shouldn't have a lot of trouble using it. If you do run into problems, see Steve Miller or Al Graff for help.

Sweet Hour of Prayer

Hey gals--for anyone interested, we are meeting Sunday afternoon at 5 in the annex to pray for the ladies at Sunshine. If anyone has questions see Heather Gragg.

The Frazzled Female

Finding peace in the midst of daily life. A ladies Bible study beginning Sunday evening 11/27. If you plan to attend, please sign up on the pad in the foyer so we know how many books to order.

How Do I Cope?

malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you" (Ephesians 4:31,32).

Then, assuming those no-nos to the Ephesians are sinful, I read Paul in Galatians 5:16-18 saying, "Live by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature. For the sinful nature desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the sinful nature. They are in conflict with each other, so that you do not do what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit you are not under the law."

Paul does goes on to identify the sinful nature to the Galatians (it is not just an assumption) as hatred, discord, fits of rage, factions and envy, followed by saying, "those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God" (5:19-21).

I could go on quoting scripture, but I guess that is enough.

What I have found is that I need to do something about a kind of reaction that is, based on the passages just quoted, not Christian.

But does that mean I should quit my job? On the contrary, to me that means I need to work harder at being the person I ought to be. What better way to learn how to live than to be in the field of fire? I think the best part is to realize there is something that needs changing and it is me.

"The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control," Paul told the Galatians (5:23,24).

Now, we might say, "Well, if everybody else would follow the same guidance, I would not have this problem."

Really? Wouldn't that be nice?

The thing is that the other person might be saying the same thing about us. Worst of all, the other person might be saying, "If that is what a Christian is I don't want to be a part of it."
