PRESIDENTS DAY

So tomorrow is another Monday. But that Monday is special. Tomorrow is Presidents Day.

Presidents Day is a day set aside to honor the presidents past and present. Honor. That is something that we in this country don't do enough. We have good intentions, but when we hear about something that the president did that we don't like, all our good intentions are gone.

From Washington to Obama our presidents have had a huge responsibility on their shoulders. They lead us in war and peace. They make decisions about what laws will go into effect. They ensure that our freedom is maintained.

I know that in light of some of our recent presidents, sometimes we complain about what they are doing wrong. We rant and rave about all the things we would like to change. But many times we forget to honor and respect the president.

We don't have to like or agree with him to respect him, but we should honor him as our elected president.

This Presidents Day, let's all remember our presidents, past and present, who have given of themselves, their time, and their lives to serve our country. Let's find a way to honor them, whether in prayer, or service, or in letter.

God calls us to honor those in authority over us even if they don't deserve honor. This command is sometimes hard to follow, especially if we don't like the man in charge. It's not easy, but then whoever said that it would be?

For our nation as we are going through troubled times

For our national leaders and world leaders as they lead their respective nations.

For our troops in Afghanistan, Bosnia, Korea, Iraq, Liberia, Haiti and other places.

For the innocent who are suffering in the midst of war.

For the "people in the box"-- the lost in our families and community.

For those who are being martyred and persecuted for Christ in our own time

For marriage to stand in our laws as God ordained it.

For the church in Siliguri and Naresh Chhetri and Ashok Basfor

For the churches in Honduras and Haiti who partner with us in the gospel

Patricia Carr (Jamie Forbes' mother) is undergoing testing for cancer.

Lillian Knore is at Hempstead doing rehab and improving.

Ladies' Day Tea

Ladies at Sunshine and everywhere are invited to a Ladies Day Tea from 10:30 am to 1:30 pm here at Sunshine on March 31, 2012. Theme: Whatsoever Things Are Lovely. Flyer posted. See Nola Kelley for details.

Fort Hill Workers

We have already received a few requests to work at Fort Hill CYC this summer. Our week is staffed by around 45 people from Sunshine, Clifton Church of Christ (Cincinnati) and Circleville Church of Christ. Due to a limited number of staff positions available, we will, unfortunately, not be able to accommodate all requests. If you are interested in helping, please see Shaun McCray. Spots are filled as needed on a first come, first served basis. If you worked last year and are planning to return, please let Shaun or Lisa know ASAP. Our week this year is July 15-21.

Time to Volunteer Your Home

We really can't wait till next week to determine our 12 or 13 sites for home groups. Right now we have 3 committed. If you are going to volunteer your house we need to know no later than Wednesday. Sign up for the homes needs to start next Sunday. Some of those who have been providing a place for the groups to meet have commented they would like a break so that they could visit someone else's home.

Spirit Club

Meets tonight at 6 pm.

And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you. -- Exodus 3:14

Home Group Dates Changed

We are moving the dates for Home Groups back one week so that they start on March 11, rather than March 4. March 11 is the beginning of Daylight Savings Time and will give us a little more light to find the homes of those we will be visiting for our groups.

Sew You Care!

Jesus said, "I was naked and you clothed me..." and "...inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of My brethren, you did it to Me." (Matt. 25:36 and 40 KJV) The Sunshine ladies are encouraging all who sew to "sew you care" for the kids of Honduras. Our mission team is returning to that country in May and our goal is to clothe 100 children with dresses, shirts, and shorts. Come sew with us on Tuesdays and Fridays from 9am - ? or sew at home. Please see Irmalee or Rhonda for more information.

Baby Shower

There will be a baby shower for Jimmy and Jamie Forbes Sunday, Feb. 26 at 5PM in the annex-It's a boy! Please plan to come to church a little early for this happy event!

That's the theme for our centennial celebration coming up on September 29 and 30. Many other plans are beginning to fall into place. Pray for this weekend, that it will glorify God and energize the church for at least another 100 years of service. Thank you to those who submitted their ideas for the tagline for the centennial. This one actually borrows from 2 or 3 submissions that were put in the box.

Teen Devo

There will be a devo at Annie Davis' house this Thursday from 6:00 - 8:00. A signup sheet is in the back for hosting teen devos on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month from 6:00-8:00. Sign up for the date(s) you would be able to handle.

Teen Parent Meeting

There are changes coming soon to the youth group. There will be a meeting concerning these changes on February 26th at 5:00. The ages this change will involve are the 4, 5, & 6 grade. If you are a parent of a child in this age group please plan to attend the meeting.

Free CPR Class

February 23 and 28 SOMC is providing free CPR training from 6-8 in the Gleason Building (East Campus). If you would like to sign up, call 356-2552 or check the poster on the bulletin board.

Dishes

There are many dishes in kitchen/annex area that need to be picked up by their owners. Please stop by and get yours.

Miscellaneous

Nylon netting needed for a project. See the sample on the Sunshine News Board and bring your netting to Penny Ball. Also, someone in the congregation is looking to buy a used treadmill. See Penny Ball.

Winterfest 2012

About 90 of our people are away this morning at Winterfest in Gatlinburg, TN. We expect them back late this afternoon, in time for Bible Study this evening.

Online Resources

Archives of past bulletins and sermons can be downloaded from Sunshine's web page. Our internet locations are listed on the back of this bulletin. If you have questions or would like to help with these ministries see Al Graff or Jacob Miller.

A verse from Exodus 3 has been scrambled vertically. Drop each letter into the correct position in the grid to reveal the scripture. A few letters have been done for you. The solution to the puzzle can be found at the bottom of page 2.
