Normal or Nuts?

While sitting at my local Toyota dealership this morning while my van is being serviced, I noticed a Reader's Digest in the waiting room with the title, "Are you normal or nuts? Your quirks, dreams, anxieties explained." Now, I could pick up the magazine and receive a complete clinical diagnosis (yeah right) or I can do what people have been doing for thousands of years... receiving competence and confidence from God.

The Bible is replete with stories of quirky, anxious & eclectic folks who put their trust in God and he completed their lives by His presence and His purpose.

Our Bible class read from Exodus 3 last night where God chose Moses to lead His people out of Egypt... and Moses takes issue with God's selection. Moses says, "Who am I? Who are you? I can't speak, they won't listen." He uses any ready excuse to derail the plan of God for his life - but they all fall short because of the promise of God when He tells Moses (and us), "I will be with you." (Exodus 3:12)

Are you normal or nuts? Well, I have another question... Do you know God is with you? It's amazing that when we compare ourselves with others' accomplishments, we epically fail. But when we team up with the accomplishments and the life of God... "Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time." 1 Peter 5:6

Digest that.

VBS Leaders Needed

VBS for this year is June 25-29. The theme is UNDER CONSTRUCTION. Posted on the south wall of the auditorium are various leader/teacher jobs that need to be covered by people willing to do a little advance planning and organizing Pick a job and sign up. Info packets are on the wall too. These packets have all the information you will need to choose a job. Take a packet, read it over, pick a job, sign up, and start praying about VBS. The big sign up grid goes up June 1st with support jobs for VBS. For now, the main thing is to get our leaders, planners, organizers and teachers committed. How about you?

Women of Faith

If you are interested in going to Women of Faith on August 3rd-4th, we still have a few tickets left. If you have already signed up, please try to connect with one of us to get your ticket paid this week so that we can hold your seat. We need all tickets paid for by the end of May. We have excellent seats this year and there is a great line up of speakers. It is a great faith building weekend that you don't want to miss! See Kendra, Cara Jo or Cheryl for details.

Sweet Monday on Hiatus

The ladies "Sweet Monday" get-togethers have been suspended until October.

One Day Missions

Friday, June 1st will be our first One Day Mission trip where we will be serving lunch at the Ronald McDonald House (RMH) and then going to Midwestern Children's Home. Due to the very sensitive immune systems of the kids at RMH, all participants must be healthy - free from colds, fever, cough and stomach virus symptoms. All food must be prepared at the RMH due to their health requirements, so nothing can be prepared ahead of time. If you signed up to provide food, please note that we will be feeding approximately 90 people and you can leave it in the kitchen here at church for us to take with us Friday morning. We will be leaving the church at 8 am and you need to bring an extra change of clothes that can get dirty for our project at Midwestern. We are still in need of hamburger meat, and lots of it, so please let one of ladies in charge know if you are able to donate some beef! There will be a short meeting after services this morning. Please see Jessie, Kendra, Amanda or Cheryl for details.

Correction:

Teresa Hayward's clothing class was omitted from last week's article about the clothing sent with our mission team to Honduras. They sent 14 dresses and 10 pair of shorts.

Summer Food Program for Local Students

As some of you know, we have been sending food home on the weekends to about 38 Minford students for the past two school years. We have decided to extend this service over the summer. We will be delivering this food to the children every two weeks.

If you are interested in helping with this program, here's what you can do; you can help provide foods listed below and/or you can help deliver the food to the families. If you are interested in helping in any way, contact June Book soon. We plan to implement this immediately. Thank you in advance!

Non-perishable food items in individual servings (this food should not need to be heated, refrigerated, or require the assistance of an adult to fix): Juice pouches/boxes, fresh fruit (apples, bananas), breakfast bars, cereal, pop tarts, fruit cups, applesauce, Vienna sausages, beanie weenies, chips, snack crackers, snack cakes, spoons, forks, etc..

MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day is set aside to remember those who have fallen in our nation's wars. Sadly, the day will pass and most of us will be so caught up in picnics, family gatherings, or outdoor projects that we won't even give much thought to the real meaning of the day. That's too bad, because remembering does many things. It brings us back to the reality of what actually happened. It also encourages us to see the dedication of those who fought and died. Remembering stirs within us a sense of gratitude and appreciation, and it strengthens our resolve to do our part in serving God, country and others.

Throughout the Bible, God's people are instructed to stop and recall what He did for them. Psalm 105 is a song of remembrance of God's goodness to His beloved ones. It traces His direction, provision and protection through their history and the lives of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, and Moses. As believers in the 21st century, we can look back over a much longer history and see how God's plan has and is unfolding, and observe His incredible goodness to us.

Psalm 105:1-5 shows the natural progression of what happens when I pause to remember—I give thanks to Him and continue calling on Him. I sing of Him, and talk with fellow believers of all He has done. Then I must go tell others of His greatness. When I stop to trace the work of God's hand in my life and in the world around me, these things just come naturally.

But the key to being able to rejoice in the past is not found in counting the number of good things that have happened, but in remembering that God remembers! We can rejoice because He never forgets His plan and He never forsakes His promises. Even when life is tough and things don't seem to make sense to us, we can rest assured that He is in control and He is working out His plan. He has our best interest at heart. Knowing this encourages and strengthens us, and pushes us to do our best to live for Him.
