Right of Way

Personal experience, as well as the testimony of others, is that one of the most confusing parts of driving is the matter of “right of way.” The Tennessee driver’s manual devotes the better part of five pages to the subject. I suspect (with no statistical basis) that one of the most frequent citations issued in traffic accidents is probably “failure to yield right of way.” Most of have been frustrated by the actions of others, especially with 4-way stop intersections (a Facebook rant relating to this was the source of this train of thought). These matters are important, because proper usage of the guidelines prevents accidents and makes traffic run more smoothly.

If you take the concept of “right of way” out of the driving realm into other areas of life, some interesting thoughts arise. When I looked up the driver’s manual to count pages, a statement near the beginning of the section caught my eye.

You Must Not Insist On the Right-of-Way: The law does not really give anyone the right-of-way. It only says who must yield the right-of-way.

That sounds almost biblical, doesn’t it?

...“If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me.” (Luke 9:23)

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. (Philippians 2:3-4)

Contemporary society is consumed with the idea of our “rights.” When a person doesn’t get his way, or she is offended by something, often the first response is to assert their rights. A Christian approach to life ought to be very different from that. I believe the New Testament echoes the Tennessee driver’s manual. Life is not so much about who has the “right of way” in a situation, but about being willing to yield the “right of way” to others.

We must yield way to God. Submitting our will to His will is not optional. That is the significance of “denying myself.” But we must also be willing to yield way to others. We are called to humility, to servanthood. We are to “submit to one another out of reverence for Christ” (Ephesians 5:21). We are to consider the needs, the interests, even the weaknesses of others. Contrary to the world’s thinking, it’s not all about me, my, and mine. It’s about Him, and them, and then us.

The ultimate condemnation for man will come down to this one thing: failure to yield the right of way to God. Jesus said, “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.” (Matthew 7:21)

PRAYER REQUESTS

For our nation as we are going through troubled times

For our national leaders and world leaders as they lead their respective nations.

For our troops in Afghanistan, Bosnia, Korea, Iraq, Liberia, Haiti and other places.

For the innocent who are suffering in the midst of war.

For the "people in the box"-- the lost in our families and community.

For those who are being martyred and persecuted for Christ in our own time

For marriage to stand in our laws as God ordained it.

For the church in Siliguri and Naresh Chhetri and

Ashok Basfor

For the churches in Honduras and Haiti who partner with us in the gospel

Julie Ball (Cathy Coriell's friend and co-worker) is in remission from leukemia but was recently diagnosed with breast cancer.

Don Ramey's throat procedure went well, biopsy results in 2 weeks.

Praise Report: Jim Jacobs is home and doing much, much better.

Christa Nichols (coworker of many Sunshine nurses in the nursery at SOMC) recently lost her 27 year old, special needs son and was told this week that she may be having a recurrence of lung cancer.

Tim Wolfe is facing an abdominal surgery.

Zack Isaac (Tim Wolfe's nephew) in fragile condition but has now contracted the flu.

Nicole Edwards (Penny Ball's friend in St. Louis) is in danger of losing her baby.

Gene Madden is having severe breathing problems.

Mark Madden is suffering with a blood clot in his leg.

Delphie Jenkins is scheduled for ankle surgery on Wednesday.

Georgie Wishman is suffering with Crohn's Disease.

Delilah Madden is having breathing problems caused by thyroid condition.

Centennial Pictures—Last Call

If you have any pictures that you would like to have included in a video presentation during our 100th Anniversary weekend please put them in one of the envelopes in the foyer and place them in the large yellow folder. These envelopes will be available beginning this evening. Place your name on the white envelope. These will be scanned in and then returned to you. We are looking for any pictures related to Sunshine over the years. See Aaron, Steve or Mike and Sharon Gampp.

Senior Members Pancake Breakfast

The youth group would like to invite the members of the congregation ages 50 and older to a pancake breakfast before morning church on October 7. Please sign up if you plan to attend in the foyer.

Flu Shots

Flu shots will be offered on Sunday October 7 as they have in the past. The Medicare billing is changing, and my training for this is Oct 3 so I will have to let you know. I do know that some parts are still going to be eligible. Cost for everyone will be determined by Medicare. So save the date and more info will be coming when I get it. Nurses & Helpers---You know who you are!! We need your help that morning and after services. Let me know if you are available! Kristi Cordle

Midwestern Work Day

We're planning a day for some work to be done at Midwestern Childrens Home, men and women included. The date is October 20th. Check your calendars and sign up in the back if you think you will be able to make it. We need to give a number of people to Midwestern so they can see what kind of projects we will be able to do. See Jessie Coriell or Amanda Nickell for questions.

Home Group Dates Adjusted

Due to a crowded schedule we have adjusted the dates for Sunday PM Home Groups to October 21-November 11.

Homes Needed for Home Groups

We will be having four sessions of home groups October 21-November 11. We need 13 homes to serve as locations for the groups to meet. There is a sign up sheet in the foyer for those who would be willing to host a group. The study and discussion this time will be based on four video lessons from Ray Vander Laan's In the Dust of the Rabbi.

Centennial Challenge Update

The kindergarten/1st grade class of Joan Coriell has taken the challenge to come up with 100 wash clothes for needy families in other parts of the world. That leaves the challenge for 100 tubes of toothpaste and 100 tooth brushes still open. Which classes will accept the challenge? Everything must be turned in by the Centennial. These items will be delivered through Operation Christmas Child as part of the items that will go in children's gift boxes. See Mike or Sharon Gampp for details.
is interested. See Heather Gragg with questions.

Help for Sunshine History: Last Call

We are wanting to update the Sunshine History. The version we have right now goes up through the time of Bill Mead (1966-1969). If you could take the bulletin insert and write down any significant events or people that should be included in our history from that point until the present that you can think of it would be greatly appreciated. You can put the completed forms in the large envelope on the back table. Thanks.

Quilt Update

The Centennial Quilt is pieced together and is now at the Thomas Sewing Center near Flatwoods. It should be completed in time for the Centennial. Teresa Hayward is now handing out quilt squares for a companion quilt to go with the Centennial Quilt. If you would like to get in on this one, see Teresa ASAP.

Sympathy Extended

To the family of Charlotte Brisker (Janet Risner and Annie Brisker's mother) who passed, Monday, September 10. The funeral was in Minford. (Apologies for omitting this from last week's bulletin.)

To the family of Roger Gahm (Troy Gahm's uncle) who passed after heart surgery on Friday, September 19 at SOMC. Arrangements are pending.

To the family of Edgar Allen (father to Brenda Kallner) who passed at Elbrooke Pavilion, Friday night (September 19) around midnight. Visitation is at Erwin-Dodson-Allen on Monday from 6-8 pm.

Burial will be at the convenience of the family.

Food for the Weekend

We are currently sending food home on the weekends to 68 Minford students. The number has doubled from last year!!!! If you would like to donate to this worthwhile cause, either monetarily or by donating food items, it would be greatly appreciated. Please remember that we send food home every week!!! I will be putting a "drop-off" box in the back. Any questions, see June. Also, please remember that we only send non-perishable foods in individual servings. I have included a general list of items. Thank you in advance. June Book. Here is the suggested list of items: Juice boxes, fruit cups, pop tarts, (small) cereal boxes, breakfast bars, beanie-wienies, Vienna sausages, snack crackers, pudding cups, snack cakes, fruit snacks, etc.

Ladies Retreat Sign Up

A pad is laid out in the foyer for our women to sign up for the Ladies Retreat, November 9-10, Branded for Christ. More information is coming soon. See Cheryl Villinger, Rhonda Berry or Mandi Coriell for questions.

Ladies' Class Continues

There is a new ladies' class meeting in the annex studying the topic "Shepherding a Child's Heart." This class will be presented in a video format, but there is a book for further study if anyone

Reminders for the Centennial

1. Parking/Seating. Please remember to park so as to leave spots near the building for guests of Centennial Sunday. Same goes for seating in the auditorium. We have 345 seats in the auditorium and every one of them will be occupied. Make it easy to fill all the seats, please.
2. Tables/Chairs. We have 3 or 4 times when chairs and tables must be set up or taken down. See the grid on the window in the foyer and fill in the times you will come and help.
3. Ice Cream Social, 6-7:30 Saturday evening. For the ice cream social, the ice cream and utensils are provided but we are depending on the congregation to provide the cookies, pies, cakes, brownies, etc., that goes along with the ice cream. We ask that you not use nuts in your recipe. Also, if you make a sugar-free dessert, would you please see that it is labeled well. There will also be sugar-free ice cream available. See Sharon Gampp for details.
4. Fellowship Dinner, immediately following am services and the Big Picture. Meat (pulled pork barbeque, beef brisket, chicken), drinks, utensils will be provided, but we are depending on members to bring a covered dish that complements the meats and anything else (salads, side-dishes, casseroles, desserts, breads) you care to bring. See Heather Gragg for details.
5. Show and Tell. At this time, only one person has indicated that they will be contributing anything at show and tell time on Sunday evening. Get with Steve Miller if you have something in mind.
6. Budget. We still need about $350 to completely pay for the Centennial. Mark your contribution "Centennial" and put it in the offering box.
7. History. An updated History of the Sunshine church of Christ will be available at the Centennial.
8. DVD. We will be taping all of our speakers (Saturday and Sunday). Also, there will be a Centennial Highlight DVD made available after the Centennial for a small charge.
