Woe is Me, For I am Ruined!

In Isaiah 6, the prophet experienced a vision of the Lord. He beheld Him in all His glory, all His magnificence, all His holiness. When Isaiah was confronted with the holiness of God, all he could comprehend was how dirty, how unclean, how sinful he was in comparison. He had a very real encounter with the Almighty God, and his reaction was, "Woe is me, for I am ruined!"

Have you ever noticed that the brighter the light, the more imperfections you can see? Bright light seems to show up every speck of dirt, every little flaw, every uneven patch. That is why we are often content with dimmer light: we don't notice what bad shape things are in.

True revival comes from a fresh encounter with the Lord. The problem is that, like Isaiah, when we truly encounter the fullness of God, His pure holiness will shine on us with the brilliance of a thousand spotlights. And when our lives are exposed in the light of His holiness, we will suddenly be forced to recognize and deal with our imperfections, our flaws, our uncleanness - our sin.

It is easier to walk in dimmer light. It is more comfortable to not be troubled by every little speck of sinfulness in our lives. But to do so is to miss out on the ultimate fullness of joy that is available while walking with God.

Are we frightened by the thought of experiencing true revival? Are we afraid to expose our lives to the revealing light of God's holiness? Are we unwilling to face the overwhelming realization of our true sinfulness? Are we too proud to cry aloud, "Woe is me, for I am ruined!"?

The cry for revival must come from hearts that are willing to risk the dismay of conviction of sin in order to gain the most precious of experiences - intimate communion with the heavenly Father.

Time Change Coming

We fall back one hour on Sunday, November 4.

Welcome, Avery!

Avery Lynn Hayward arrived Thursday, October 18, born to Holly Hayward. Avery was 5 lbs, 13 oz and measured 18 inches long. Mother and baby made it back home Saturday evening and both are doing well. We are all thankful for the safe arrival of Avery and look forward to her first visit here at church.

One Day Mission:

Ronald McDonald House

We are putting a team together to serve the families staying at the RMH in Cincinnati on Saturday, October 27th from 2-8pm. We will be serving a snack, doing an activity with the children and serving dinner to the families. Men, women, teens and older children are welcome to attend. These families are weary and exhausted and a home cooked meal from people who care means so much! If you are unable to attend, we still need your help! Consider signing up to send a food item with the team! Sign up sheets are in the foyer. See Kendra Cram or Cheryl Villingner for details.

Home Group Sign Up: This is it.

Ok, the pads are laid out. Pick your group and sign up. In the interest of broadening our circles of friendship and fellowship, sign up for a home where you have never visited before. Also, please try to balance out the groups number-wise. Maps or directions to the house are placed under the sign up pads. Also updated copies of our fellowship directory are laid out to give basic information about address/phone number for the hosts. A couple of the groups have limited space.

Home Group Hosts and Leaders

If you are a home group host or leader, please pick up the yellow information sheet on the table in the foyer. Hosts, besides the yellow sheet, please pick up a bag of the communion sets for your group. Leaders, pick up a DVD with the four lessons we will be using for our home groups. By the way, lessons 1, 2, 3 and 5 are the designated lessons for our four nights of home groups. You are a leader if your name is highlighted in yellow and/or circled.

Lord's Army

There will be a skit practice today at the church building at 4 pm.

Food for the Weekend

We are currently sending food home on the weekends to 68 Minford students. The number has doubled from last year!!!! If you would like to donate to this worthwhile cause, either monetarily or by donating food items, it would be greatly appreciated. Please remember that we send food home every week!!! I will be putting a "drop-off" box in the back. If you have questions, see June. Also, please remember that we only send non-perishable foods in individual servings. I have included a general list of items Thank you in advance. June Book. Here is the suggested list of items: Juice boxes, fruit cups, pop tarts, (small) cereal boxes, breakfast bars, beanie-wienies, Vienna sausages, snack crackers, pudding cups, snack cakes, fruit snacks, etc.

Ladies Retreat Information

Ladies, it is still not too late to sign up for the ladies retreat. Beginning today, the retreat leaders will be collecting the $45 fee for the retreat. There are "scholarships" available for those who cannot afford the fee. See Cheryl Villinger to make a scholarship arrangement. November 9-10, Branded for Christ. For more information see Cheryl Villinger, Rhonda Berry or Mandi Coriell.

Plastic Bags Needed

At the ladies' retreat some time will be devoted to weaving and braiding plastic shopping bags (think Kroger or Walmart) in to mats to be used in a ministry to the homeless. A collection box will be placed in the foyer to put your donated bags in.

Adoption Seminar

On November 4th, America World Adoption will be hosting a free adoption seminar entitled "Adopted by Design". The seminar will be from 2PM to 4PM at Sunshine Church of Christ (20 Barklow Rd. Portsmouth, Ohio 45662). This program will address what God's word says about adoption. If you are struggling with infertility or are wondering if adoption is right for you and your family, this seminar will be a blessing. You will hear families share their personal adoption experience and see the love that defines what it means to be a mother and father. For more information about AWAA, please visit their web site at: www.awaa.org . Call 800-429-3369 or visit www.awaa.org/events to register for a seminar.

Veteran's Breakfast

The Veterans Day breakfast is planned for Nov. 11, before church, starting at 8:30 am. The menu includes sausage and biscuits with gravy, hash browns, and juice or coffee. If anyone would be interested in donating food, helping cook or serve, please sign up on the page provided on the back table, or see Beth Miller. Thanks.

Veteran's Presentation

At the conclusion of our Sunday morning services on November 11, we will be honoring the veterans connected with our congregation through a music-video presentation. We are in the process of updating and revising the presentation. If you are satisfied with the picture that has been used in the past, you don't have to do anything. If you want to update a picture, delete or add a picture get with Al Graff ASAP. Deadline for additions, changes, etc., will be November 4.

Sew You Care – China

It has come to our attention that some of the children in orphanages in China do not even have a soft, warm blanket in their cribs. So, we are making "ragtime" quilts for children in an orphanage in China. We hope to have a suitcase full of crib quilts to take with us when we go to pick up Baby Girl Cram. You do NOT need to know how to sew. We will be assembling the quilts assembly line fashion, so there will be jobs that do not require sewing. If you can use a pair of scissors you can help!

We have scheduled some work days at the church - some evenings, some weekdays, some Saturdays to accommodate various schedules. Come and work all of the time or part of the time – whatever works for you.

If you have a pair of sharp scissors, please bring them. If you have fabric (100% cotton, please) and/or pieces of thin quilt batting you would like to donate, that would be great. If you have a rotary cutter and mat, we can use that too.

Schedule: Mondays 9 AM - 2 PM ----October 22 and November 5

Tuesdays 5 – 9 PM-----October 16 and October 30

Saturdays 9 AM – 2 PM ----October 20 and November 3

Thank you for your willingness to help care for orphans.

The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep. — Ecclesiastes 5:12
