Safe vs. Best

Old 'Brady Bunch' episodes... you gotta love em! The classic, "And now, a word from our sponsor" episode caught my attention the other day. This is the one where a TV commercial director spies out the Bradys at a local supermarket and is so impressed with the 'every family' look to them, decides to take a chance and cast them in his next commercial for "SAFE" laundry soap. The family then faces an 'integrity dilemma', because although they have been cast and paid to endorse this product, they aren't sure they can recommend a soap they don't use, and (you guessed it) the other 'leading' soap is called "BEST" detergent. Mr. Brady tells his wife, Carol, that it wouldn't be ethical for them to say one thing and believe another, even if it came with a substantial financial cash incentive.

It's refreshing to watch shows from the 70s that place the concept of integrity over cold/hard cash. It seems the thought of morality in today's culture went out with the Bradys, Andy Griffith and Good Times episodes a long time ago. That sincere righteousness seems to be lost in the shuffle of today's steroid use and political sell-outs. Think about it: when was the last time the headlines ran like something like this... 'kid returns lost money', 'man risks peril for stranger', or 'man stays faithful to his wife'. Even if it's not in the headlines, integrity is always 'best'. As a matter of fact, Paul writes about this 'detergent' of morality... "And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ..." - Philippians 1:9-11

In this world we live in today, 'safe' always seems better than 'best'... 'safe' being the easy fix, the quick buck and the shortest route to happiness... and 'best' contains the will of God, the road less traveled, the more difficult but more blessed way, the way of the Master. Think and act this day on what is best, and there will be no looking over your shoulder or covering your tracks - because integrity comes with something precious... security and peace of mind. Those are 2 things that this culture has less and less of, and the person of God can't exist without them.

"The man of integrity walks securely, but he who takes crooked paths will be found out." - Proverbs 10:9

"Live so that when your children think of fairness, caring, and integrity, they think of you." - H. Jackson Brown Jr.

Soup Fellowship Today

Today after morning services we will be having a soup fellowship in the annex. Please stay and enjoy the great variety of soups and the great variety of people. If you have forgotten, don't worry. Please stay and join in. There will be plenty for all.

Be a Friend-Bring a Friend

Next Sunday is Friend Day. Do you know who your friend will be? It's not too late to invite a friend to be with you next Sunday as part of Friend Day. It will be a great day for us here at Sunshine to have all of our friends sitting beside us for that AM service. Pray, invite, follow through. We're looking for 411+ to be in attendance. We have made changes in the building that will allow us to seat that number with room to spare. Here are some last minute instructions:

1. Save the best parking spots for our friends. We have parking in the back and we have permission to use the auxiliary parking of the airport if necessary.
2. Please realize that nearly every seat will have to be filled in order to get everyone seated. Help us by moving to the middle of the row and filling in every seat.
3. Pray for every aspect of this day. Weather, the service, the message, the effect on your friend.
4. Thank you for being an evangelistic church. There is no future for a church that is not seeking the lost and bringing them to Christ. That is who and what we want to be. That is who we are.

Sew You Care

Meeting on Mondays 9 am to 2pm at the church to sew, making quilts to take to the orphans in China. Everyone welcome to participate. See Karren Griffith for details.

Food Supplement Program News

About a year ago Sunshine began to provide week-end food supplement bags for students in the Minford elementary school. These were foods that required little or no preparation and could be stored without refrigeration that the kids could take home to get them through the weekend. These kids come from homes where the adults are not able or simply do not provide for their children for a host of reasons. The number of children being served reached 68 this fall.

The news is that a local charity is now partnering with Sunshine and the school to help with these kids. Forty-eight of them will be provided for by the Steven Hunter Hope Fund. This charity now has a food supplement program in several of the schools in the county. Minford and South Webster were added this month. If you would like to make a donation to the Steven Hunter Hope Fund, there is information posted on the bulletin board in the foyer.

Of course, we can still use help providing for the 20 students that belong to us. We have a large blue plastic container in the foyer for donations of things like beanie-weenies, pudding and jello cups, toaster pastries, Vienna sausages, energy bars, granola bars, Mac & cheese cups, anything that is prepackaged, requires little or no preparation and that kids would generally like. To make a money donation or for more details see June Book.

Songleaders Class Coming

Sunday, March 17, is the beginning of a short, basic class for songleaders. The class will meet 3 or 4 times on Sunday evenings at 5 pm. The class will cover how to use a pitch pipe and correctly pitch songs for the congregation. Time will be allotted for actual practice using the pitch pipe. Also, some attention will be given to how to promote a spirit of worship in the church through the song service. For details see Steve Miller or Judi Allison. If you are planning on being in the class, get a pitch pipe and/or a free app for your i-phone before the class starts.

Home Group Host Homes Needed

We will be using more video material from Ray Vanderlaan for the teaching aspect of the group meetings. At this time, we need to get about 12 or 13 homes committed as host homes for the groups. Please find the pad on the table in the foyer and sign up if you are willing to be a host. We cannot put the groups together until we have host homes for the groups.
