Jesus is Lord

That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved. ...for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." — Romans 10:9-10,13

For a Jew to confess that "Jesus is Lord" is a big thing. As we read through the book of Acts, we see the biggest obstacle to Christianity were the Jews. It was the Jewish leaders that were constantly stirring up trouble for Christians. The Jews hated Christianity, so for a Jew to say, "Jesus is Lord" was an exceptionally decisive statement.

I had a friend whose father was an orthodox Jew. When his father was converted to Christianity, he was cut off from the rest of the family. They even had a funeral for him and considered him as dead. They hated Christianity that strongly.

Consider Saul of Tarsus. He pursued Christians, had them imprisoned, and took part in their execution. For him to become a Christian took an actual miracle. Saul became Paul. He had made Jesus his Lord.

In Acts 2, Peter is preaching to the Jews and he says, "Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ" (v. 26). Many of these Jews yelled, "Crucify him" just fifty days earlier. In the same sermon Peter quotes Joel 2:32, "And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved" (v. 21). The sermon ends with, "When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, 'Brothers, what shall we do?' Peter replied, 'Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit'" (v. 27-28). Notice the power of the "name" both in confession and baptism.

So is baptism really important, since Paul omitted it in Romans 10? Actually, he didn't, Paul spoke strongly about how baptism is symbolic of the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus a few chapters prior (6:3-11). What Paul is doing in chapter 10 is to reveal the stumbling block for the Jews, to make Jesus Lord.

So for a Jew to confess, "Jesus is Lord" is a big thing then and today. That may be the greatest challenge in their conversion.

Please Pray For:

For our nation as we are going through troubled times

For our national leaders and world leaders as they lead their respective nations.

For our troops in Afghanistan, Bosnia, Korea, Iraq, Liberia, Haiti and other places.

For the innocent who are suffering in the midst of war.

For the "people in the box"-- the lost in our families and community.

For those who are being martyred and persecuted for Christ in our own time

For marriage to stand in our laws as God ordained it.

For the church in Siliguri and Naresh Chhetri and Ashok Basor

For the churches in Honduras and Haiti who partner with us in the gospel

Card Ministry Reminder

We have two situations in our prayer list where cards are requested. Just to remind you that we have a supply of all kinds of cards and envelopes on the wall in the annex that you can use to fulfill these card requests. If you want, you can leave your completed get-well card on the desk in the church office and we will put a stamp on it and mail it out.

Oklahoma Tornado Relief Work

The Oakcrest church of Christ in Oklahoma City, OK is spearheading efforts to provide relief and support for those affected by the recent tornado. If you would like to contribute to the money being collected to help, go to the church website at www.oakcrestchurch.com and follow the instructions. Also, just a reminder that we (Sunshine) support the Disaster Relief Effort based in Nashville on a monthly basis to help with situations like this one. Your contributions could also go there and help provide additional support for the tornado victims. www.disasterreliefeffort.org will provide information on how to contribute.

Sew You Care Day Change

Meeting on Wednesday's, 9 am to 2pm at the church to sew, making dresses to take to the orphans in Honduras. These dresses would go with the group leaving in July. Everyone welcome to participate. See Karren Griffith for details.

Elm Grove Ladies Day

September 21, the ladies of the Elm Grove church will be having a "ladies" day. Check the bulletin board for details

Lord's Army News

There will be a skit practice today at 4:30. Anyone grades 7 - 12 interested in joining the Lords Army please come to the practice.

Gospel Quartet Concert

Saturday, June 8, 4 pm at Ohio Valley University in Parkersburg, WV. Eight different quartets are performing. See details on the bulletin board.

VBS Leader Meeting Today

Immediately after morning services Steve Miller would like to meet with all VBS leaders in the annex. Information about VBS and money will be given out.

VBS Student Sign Up

The pads are laid out on the table in the foyer. For our own kids, the only thing you need to do is sign them up on the pad for their age/grade level. Please note that for VBS we are using the grade to which the child has just been promoted. For kids who are visitors, sign them up on the pad and take a Registration Card to their parents. Have the parents fill out the card and bring it with them the first night of VBS. We are running attendance contests this year and your guest will count every night they attend. The class with the most total visitors throughout Mon-Thu will get to spray Count VBS with cans of silly string on Thursday night.

VBS Guides and Support Workers

We are now signing up teens and adults to work during VBS. There is a big grid on the window in the foyer where you can sign up for specific duties and days of VBS. Also, we need workers for the Program and Picnic Friday evening.

Family Day Open House at Camp

Saturday, June 8, from 10am to 8 pm, Fort Hill Christian Youth Camp is having a family day. For a small fee all kinds of activities are available. Take a look at the flyer on the bulletin board.

Pictorial Directory

The family roster for the Pictorial Directory is posted in the foyer. Please check to make sure your family is included and all of the information is correct, particularly individual names and family ranking...look for things like children mistakenly shown as a spouse, etc. Missing things are highlighted with yellow, please add the info if you don't mind sharing. There is also time to submit your own photo if you didn't have one taken, several of you didn't. This list will only remain posted for TWO WEEKS. After that, it goes to the publisher! For more information, see Al Graff.

Honduras Team Is Back

We missed them last Sunday because they were in Honduras, but they are back with us today. Welcome back, brothers and sisters in Christ. From all indications the trip was a total success. Praise the Lord! We are looking forward to the report which will be forthcoming. Also, the team would like to express their thanks to everyone for their prayers and overwhelming support! There will be a meeting next week in regards to the upcoming Family Mission Trip to Honduras for anyone interested in participating.
