The Hungry Critic

You see, there's this restaurant that everyone's been clamoring about & you finally get a night with a few friends to go try out this new talk of the town. When you finally arrive at the eatery - the atmosphere is inviting, the waiters are friendly, and your group is made to feel like royalty. (You are thinking 'I can get used to this place real quick!') After ordering their signature meal - which has been endorsed and praised by all, the dish is ultimately served to you... oh, that fabulous smell, the perfectly prepared main course and the steamed vegetables speak of excellence just sitting there, calling you to consumption! You can't help but taking a few minutes to drink this moment all in - and quickly begin to comment about all the inferior restaurants that only serve second-class foods, processed messes, and overcooked blunders. As the conversation heats up, each member of your 'royal' party has a 'beef' to share against other restaurants and the whole thing turns into a culinary bash-fest... all the while the perfect meal sits and calls, sits and diminishes, then finally sits and spoils. Then, once the properly prepared and served plates are taken - all leave without taking even the first bite - still hungry, unfulfilled, and physically weak.

You may think - "That will never be me! That's just crazy - how could someone miss the main reason they there for?"

That's my question too. How could we want so much and miss so much all at the same time?

Psalm 34:8 "Taste and see that the LORD is good; blessed is the one who takes refuge in him."

Each day, God serves His people. The word of God is always available. God Himself is waiting for us to come join Him in prayer. We have a uniquely prepared mission that will bring our lives the purpose and spiritual direction we long for... yet many of us leave the table empty, unfilled, weak and miserable. People like me sometimes like to gripe about what I'm not getting - while leaving the table of blessing quite hungry and all spiritual

Camp Week

This is our week at Fort Hill Christian Youth Camp. Already many of the staff have gone up to camp to get ready for the week. Campers will be going up this afternoon to register and get situated in their cabin.

Next Sunday we'll be hearing about all the great things that happened at camp this week. Let's pray for great weather, no injuries, spiritual growth for every camper and a harvest of souls for the Lord.

Families to Honduras

July 26-29 we have some Sunshine families that will be going to Honduras for mission work. This is something new for us, in that the kids are going to be working alongside mom and dad in Honduras. We are praying that the next generation will have mission work and evangelism deeply embedded in their souls as they become the leaders of the Sunshine church. After Bible study on Sunday evening, July 21, we will be having a special prayer for these families as they depart for Honduras in His Name.

TV/DVD Set Up Operational

Recently the church installed Monitors and DVD players in all of our classrooms (except one which will be taken care of soon). We wanted to make these set ups easy to use; however, if you are a classroom teacher and plan on using the new equipment, you will want to talk with Jacob Miller about how to use them. He will be available after services in the classroom area in the back hallway to demonstrate and explain.

Added to the Kingdom

Friday night, Zoe Gampp was baptized into Christ here at the building by her father, Tim. We are rejoicing today that she has been added to the kingdom of God and made to be one of His daughters.

Congratulations to Tim and Jennifer and all of the Gampp/Taylor family on her decision. Let's give Zoe the big Sunshine welcome today.

Also, Jonathon Vogt (Cheryl Villinger's son-in-law) was baptized on Monday in the Atlantic Ocean by Mark while the whole family was on vacation. Jonathon and his wife visit from time to time at Sunshine. Let us praise the Lord for him also.

Belpre Church Celebration

Sunday, August 4, the Belpre church of Christ will celebrate their 80th anniversary and will honor Ron Laughery for his 40 years of service to the congregation as minister. Check the bulletin board for more details on this celebration. We are invited to attend.

Jenny Williams To Dominican Republic

Our Jenny Williams will be part of a medical team doing a clinic in the Dominican Republic July 16-23. This trip is being cosponsored by the medical school where she is attending and Go Ministries. Sunday evening will be the last time we will see her before she departs. At the conclusion of our Bible study Sunday evening we will be having a special prayer for her as she is leaving to serve the Lord in the Dominican Republic.

expedition untried. It doesn't have to be that way...

Today I need to pick up the fork of God... to enjoy the catering from on high. Yes, this world is crumbling without Him - but no one needs to. I can be joyful today in God, my Savior. I have been called to the table of His goodness. I have taken the refuge in His blessing. He is good.
