I'm Still Deciding...

When Ronald Reagan was a young man, his aunt brought him to a shoemaker to have a pair of shoes made. Reagan said that when he got there, the cobbler asked him if he wanted round toes or pointed toes. Reagan answered, "Well, I can't decide. Give me a few days to decide."

Time passed, and Reagan ran into the shoemaker on the street. The guy told him his shoes were ready, so Reagan stopped by the shop to pick them up. To his surprise, one shoe had a pointed toe and one had a round toe. He looked at the guy and said, "What did you do?"

The shoemaker answered, "I made these shoes to help you learn a lesson. If you don't make decisions, other people will make them for you."

"Then Elijah stood in front of them and said, 'How much longer will you waver, hobbling between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him! But if Baal is God, then follow him!'" But the people were completely silent." - 1 Kings 18:21

Have you ever been caught between decisions? Call it what you want... waffling, flip-flopping, sitting on the fence... I encourage everyone who reads this today to commit your decisions to the Lord. How do you do this? Here's 5 steps I have heard that will give you the heads-up on how to wise-up that were shared in our Bible class last night...

1. Repent - Jonah didn't start making the right decision until agreed with God's original plan and said "I will arise and go to Nineveh". Get right with God, then on to #2...
2. Check your core values. Are you really seeking God first, His glory? Matthew 6:33 says to "seek first His kingdom" - are you?
3. List the benefits/risks associated with that decision. This slows the process down and brings light to positive and negative consequences.
4. Trust in the Lord. He knows the best way - pray for direction & guidance.
5. Make a godly and informed decision, then stop stirring on it and move on.

"Never cut a tree down in the wintertime. Never make a negative decision in the low time. Never make your most important decisions when you are in your worst moods. Wait. Be patient. The storm will pass. The spring will come."
- Robert Schuller
