Thoughts

Looking at the sunset tonight as it falls behind the clouds, it throws out a pink/yellow/orange radiance. Stunning, God is amazing with His creation. As I was looking the thought hit me that many people will see this tonight but no one will see it the way I do.

Then I thought about Jesus and God, how God like the sun, shines through Jesus to get to me and many see him but none just like I do.

He is personal, he meets me where I am, sees my struggles and knows my heart. He is the way through which God can reach me and I can reach God. He is beauty and through him I see the beauty of God. Whether I am paying attention or ignoring his wonderful, accepting presence, he shines on me. Many see Jesus differently, God, man, deity, martyr, prophet, teacher, sage, a nice guy or a figment of someone's imagination, but to me he is savior. This has two parts, he saves and I need saving. I need it often, I mean I'm a mess. My thoughts and motives are rarely selfless and my pride is usually my focus. I'm easily offended and judgmental, inconsistent and needy. If it weren't for Jesus I would have never experienced God and if I never experienced God then I never would have seen my true self and what He offers me, His beloved. I would have never known that I am not who I think I am, worthless, God washes me new and gives me hope. So from where I'm standing, I see a God whose love stretches beyond reality and penetrates much deeper than truth, like sunshine through the clouds, blinded by distraction, I would never feel their presence, but with eyes wide open I see they never cease to cover me, mess and all, what a reckless love.

Big Week at Camp

Most of our young adults and kids of camp age are up at Fort Hill Christian Youth Camp this morning. We need to be praying for a powerful week at camp and some decent weather.

Dessert Tonight after PM Service

Yes, while the kids are away, the adults will play. We are "celebrating" a week of peace and quiet around here by having dessert in the annex after Bible Study tonight. Actually, this is a way of getting rid of a lot of food left over from the funeral dinner yesterday. I am sure Tyler would approve of this use of the food.

Acappella Concert Tickets

All former members of the Elmgrove/Pike-ton Youth group are having a reunion at the Pike County Fairgrounds September 25-27. Of course, others are certainly welcome. Several guest speakers are slated to speak and on Saturday afternoon, at 1 pm, Acappella will be giving a concert at Waverly High School as part of the reunion. Details are posted throughout our building. Tickets to the Acappella concert are available from Spike Ferrell.

Singing Tonight

This evening at 6 pm all are invited to come and enjoy a time of singing before our evening Bible study. See Nick Davis for details.

Fundraiser

There will be a fundraising event for Breaking Chains Honduras on Tuesday July 21, 2015 at Gattis Pizza in Portsmouth. A portion of the cost of your meal that day from 11:00 am - 8:00 pm will be used to help support the work at Breaking Chains. Jared McCray and Corey Hamilton will be working in Honduras from July 23rd through July 27th, keep them in your prayers!

Wheelchair Ramp Project Deadline

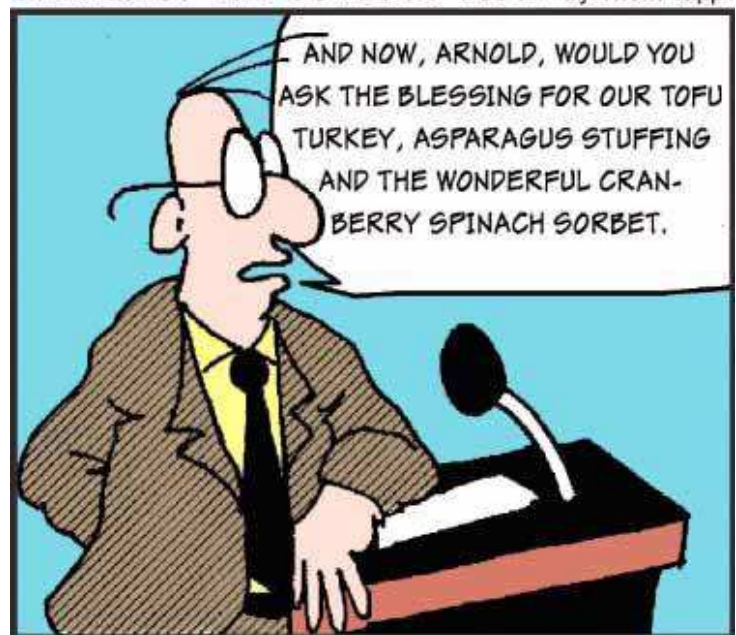

Dave Hallam has received a request to construct a wheelchair ramp for a Lucasville resident. It's one of those projects that has to be started and completed in one day. Money donations are also being solicited to help pay for the materials. If you can donate a full day to help with the project, sign up on the sheet in the foyer. Today is the deadline to sign up. Also, if you can help with the cost of the project, donations can be made through an account at any US Bank: Delphia Blanton Donation Account. Project date is Saturday, July 25, starting at 7 am. For details talk to Dave Hallam, 740-533-9398.

Dishes and Pans in the Kitchen

In the kitchen and on the counter in the Annex are many food containers of all different kinds which should be picked up by their owners right away. If you have helped with a funeral dinner lately or with cookies at VBS, stop by and get your container.
