A Trip To The Hardware Store

I was needing some plumbing parts a few days ago. Those of you that follow my blog know that plumbing is not a major part of my skill set. But the task before me was rather simple, so I took a trip to the local hardware store. The store is a large one that stocks everything from adhesives to zip ties and the plumbing supplies are all the way in the back of the store.

I'm not able to walk long distances without having to sit down and rest, so I dread visiting this store. I appreciate the stores that offer electrified shopping carts for the handicapped and rarely shop in places that don't. This particular store only offers two electric carts plus a couple of manual wheelchairs. This particular day both electric carts were in use. I needed the plumbing supplies, so I reluctantly decided to use one of the manual chairs.

While slowly pushing myself back to the plumbing section, I passed another patron riding one of the two electric carts. I didn't say anything, but my mind was grumbling about it. Mostly it was about the store offering only two carts, but a little bit of my ire was directed at the other guy as well. I wasn't a happy camper.

Moments later the other guy turned around and pulled up beside me. "Want to trade chairs?" he asked. I was dumbfounded. Why would this fellow want to push himself around in a rickety old manual wheelchair? It turned out that he was on his way to the checkouts and saw me struggling along. I eagerly traded carts with him and thanked him profusely. What a nice gesture! My bad mood instantly turned to one of happy gratitude.

Do kind things for others when you can. It's the Christian thing to do and you'll make their day a little bit brighter.

For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.'
Matthew 25:35-40

By the way, I finished my plumbing job without a problem. I think that's a first...

Breaking Chains/Gatti's Fundraiser

This past week a special effort was made through the Gatti's restaurant in Portsmouth to raise funds for building homes in Honduras. The original goal was to raise $1400, enough to cover material costs for one home. Praise the Lord, over $3100 was raised! Many thanks to all of you who came and ate and then left your tips in the Breaking Chains tip jar.

This evening at 6 pm all are invited to come and enjoy a time of singing before our evening Bible study. See Nick Davis for details.

Honduras Mission Trip

Jared McCray & Corey Hamilton spearheaded the effort to raise the funds for Breaking Chains through the Gatti's restaurant. They were busing tables on Tuesday and on the plane Wednesday to Honduras. They are scheduled to be back tomorrow. Jared and Corey paid for their own trip out of their own funds. The money raised at Gatti's went entirely to buy building materials for homes in Honduras.

Welcome Owen!

Owen Richard Henthorn arrived safe and sound last Friday (July 17) at SOMC birthing center, born the fourth son of Jason and Donna Henthorn. He weighed 6 lb.13 oz., and measured 20+ inches long. We are looking forward to his first visit at church. Congratulations to the Henthorn family.

Classes for Older Children (9-14) Today

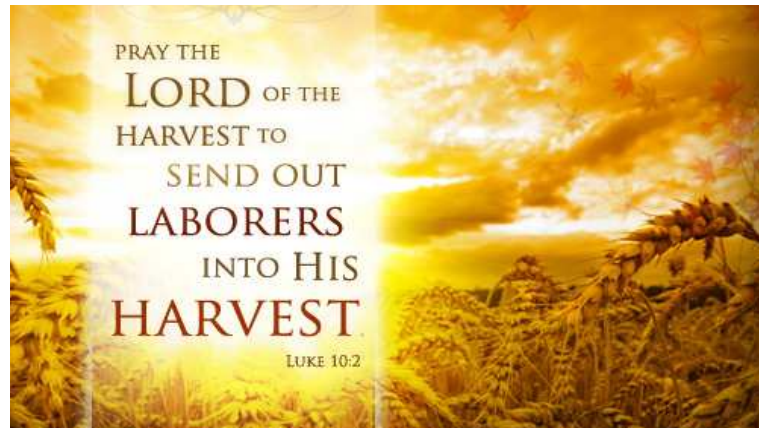

This morning the AM lesson will be an adult topic. We are looking at issues surrounding marriage and the recent Supreme Court decision that changes the definition of marriage. We have made a special class just for this morning during the sermon time for the children from age 9 on up. It's up to each parent as to whether their child stays in the auditorium or goes to the special class. The special class will be conducted by Tim Gamp and will not be about the topic being discussed in the auditorium.

Playground Renovation

You might have noticed that things look different out on the playground. This past week the old playground/swing set was removed and a new one installed. Also, the perimeter boards have been replaced with 6X6 treated timbers and sometime in the next week we ought to have the rubber pellets to put in as a base for the swing set. In the meantime, there is nothing but asphalt under the swings and the sliding board. So be careful, the asphalt will hurt if you fall on it. If you have further questions, see Shawn Gragg.
