Ivy League

A few weeks ago I pulled up a weed that wasn't just any weed, but poison ivy. So it took days for me to realize what I had done, but as you all know, once it begins to show, there is a long road that leads to feel-good land - oh, and I have been on that long road for the past 3 weeks. My fingers blistered up in unimaginable scratching and irritation. Creams & lotions - homeopathic cures... anything to get relief! As a minister who shakes hands each Sunday, 'ivy' amended how I did ministry somewhat. No glad-handing at the door, no quick greeting followed by shaking my right hand... only an awkward left-handed shake with an excuse of, "I've got poison ivy on this hand." Not fun, let me tell you.

The best part about contracting poison ivy, if there be a positive outcome, is the relief of 'after'.

Now I feel good, but then I didn't.

Now I have options, then I had regrets.

Now I can shake hands, then I had to hide one behind my back.

Now I am free to use my hands to work, but then I had to hide them so others weren't affected by my quick decision.

(Hey, are we still talking about poison ivy?)

"So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus. And because you belong to him, the power of the life-giving Spirit has freed you from the power of sin that leads to death." Romans 8:1-2

Sin is real - it holds us back from the life that God has for us - it destroys the good and champions evil.

But, the blessing of Christ - when sins are forgiven, when life is granted, when new replaces old - is the relief of 'after'.

This verse reminds us... there's no condemnation for those who belong to Christ, because His life-giving Spirit gives us freedom from sin - and freedom from death.

Looking back, I wish I never would have grabbed that one weed - the one that sent me on a three week suffer-fest. But relief - sweet relief - reminds me I belong to Jesus.

Mike Anderson - Corbin, KY

"When it comes to my salvation, all I need is Jesus; after my salvation, everything is Jesus plus the church... When people preach that all you need is Jesus, they cut you and I off from one of the greatest sources of healing, which is the body of Christ. Don't go it alone - you won't make it." - Josh McDowell

Sunday PM Home Groups Coming

Just so you know, the Home Groups are scheduled for October 4-25, 4 Sundays. We will be using some material by Andy Stanley on the theme: The Best Question Ever. Our first need is to get our host homes lined up. Take a good look at your calendar and see if you might be able to host those 4 evenings. If you can't do it by yourself, maybe we can find a co-host who can make their home available when you are unable.

He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame. Proverbs 10:5
