Autumn: God's Gift

Autumn is nature's last fling before settling down into winter's sleep....days shorten, the temperature becomes crisp, the quiet green palette of Summer foliage is transformed into the vivid Autumn red, orange, gold, and brown of the trees. Thank God for Autumn! Don't you love autumn? Albert Camus wrote: "Autumn is a second spring, when every leaf is a flower!"

Autumn gave a party
The leaves by hundreds came,
The chestnuts, oaks and maples
And leaves of every name
The sunshine spread a carpet
And everything was grand.

George Cooper

When God created the world, He created the seasons. Acts 14:17b: "(God) gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness." Many consider Autumn as a time to count their blessings and take time to appreciate what The Lord has done for them. Autumn is a good time to stop and list some of our blessings.

Autumn is a good time to display an attitude of gratitude. Without gratitude, happiness is rare. An attitude of gratitude, even in the face of adversity, can make coping easier. An attitude of gratitude engenders happy feelings of love for God and all his blessings. Attitude is contagious; other folks can "catch it" from you. Is yours worth catching?

Autumn is a time to treasure your family and friends. It is so easy to get into the habit of being crabby, whiny, grouchy, grumpy, critical, catty, and unkind. Anybody can be a grouch, make up your mind to be the kind of person whose company other folks enjoy. Tell family and friends that you love them! Tell them often. Tell people you appreciate them. Look for good in people. Pray for people. Be kind to everyone. Be an encourager!

Baptized into Christ

We rejoice over the addition of another soul in the kingdom.

Welcome, Ben

This morning our guest speaker is Ben Merold from St. Charles, MO. Ben was our speaker for the Men's Retreat at Fort Hill this weekend. I know that all the men who heard him speak can verify that Ben inspired and challenged us with a multitude of ways to bring about growth in the kingdom of God. We look forward to hearing from him this morning at 10 am.
