Make Him Glad With Your Love

Who are those who enjoy the privilege of making the Savior glad? His church--His people. But is it possible? He makes us glad, but how can we make Him glad? By our love. We think it so cold, so faint; and so, indeed, we must sorrowfully confess it to be, but it is very sweet to Christ.

Listen to such love expressed in Solomon's song: "How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride! How much better is your love than wine!" See, loving heart, this is how He delights in you. When you rest in Him you do not only receive, but you also give Him joy; when you gaze with love upon His beauty, you not only obtain comfort but impart delight.

Our praise also gives Him joy--not the song of the lips alone, but the melody of the heart's deep gratitude. Our gifts are also very pleasant to Him; He loves to see us lay our time, our talents, our substance upon the altar, not for the value of what we give, but for the sake of the motive from which the gift springs. To Him the lowly offerings of His saints are more acceptable than the thousands of gold and silver.

Holiness is like frankincense and myrrh to Him. Forgive your enemy, and you make Christ glad; distribute of your substance to the poor, and He rejoices; be the means of saving souls, and you give Him to see of the travail of His soul; proclaim His Gospel, and you are a sweet savor unto Him; go among the ignorant and lift up the cross, and you have given Him honor. It is in your power even now to break the alabaster box and pour the precious oil of joy upon His head, like the woman in the Bible, whose testimony is still remembered wherever the Gospel is preached. Will you not join her in expressing your love and devotion for the Lord Jesus? And even in ivory palaces the songs of the saints will be heard.

Sunday PM Home Groups

Sign Up for specific homes begins today. Be sure and find the pads laid out and sign for your meeting place. Hosts and Group Leaders, pick up the information sheets on the table in the foyer. Communion supplies and DVD's will be available next week. Also, please remember our desire to bring new people into each one of the groups. Some other things to remember about the groups:

1. If you are an elder or deacon you are the designated leader of the group that you are in. Circle your name on the list if you are willing to be the leader in your home group.
2. Please observe the limitations that are put on the various groups in regard to numbers or time or food.
3. Try to balance the groups in terms of number or size.
4. Try to go to a group you have never been a part of before.
5. If you are a group leader you are responsible for the discussion and Bible study which goes along with the lesson. There are no sheets with suggested discussion questions. Take the group in the direction that appeals to you.

Empowered To Connect Conference

Coming to Sunshine church of Christ. April 8-9, 10am - 6 pm. A two-day conference designed to help adoptive and foster parents, ministry leaders, churches, counsellors, social workers, therapists, and professionals better connect with "children from hard places" in order to help them heal and become all that God desires for them to be.

The conference features Dr. Karyn Purvis, & is sponsored by Show Hope Ministries (associated with Steven Curtis Chapman) and endorsed by Focus on the Family. This event is NOT just for adoptive parenting, but will provide parenting techniques that can work with ANY child

We will need YOUR help Sunshine to pull this off! Including people who would be willing to help provide childcare for parents attending the seminar, host families for adoptive families who need a place to stay for 1-2 nights (air mattresses or a couch is FINE! This is the most flexible group of people you will ever meet!), and meal/snack providers! If you are interested in helping out with this event, contact Kim McCray to pick a job you feel comfortable with.

Adoption T-Shirt Sale

In order to help cover some of the cost of adopting their 2nd child from China, Tim and Jennifer Gampp have designed a special T-shirt which they will be selling. It's dark gray with white continents and scripture. Sizes up to XL would be $16. 2XL and up would be $19. Each shirt sale would yield about $10 for the cause. For more information or to order a shirt please see Tim or Jennifer Gampp.
