The Meaning of Passover

For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. — Luke 22:16

The Lord longed to share the Passover meal with His disciples. He was less than 24 hours away from fulfilling His mission and, like anyone who can see the finish line, He must have had feelings of relief and excitement.

The Passover meal commemorated the Jews' deliverance from slavery in Egypt (Ex. 13:3-10). It also had a much deeper spiritual application that, as Jesus explains here, would be fulfilled through His death. The Jewish nation as a whole had missed any future prophetic meaning of the Passover.

On the night of the original Passover, the Lord passed through the land of Egypt and judged the land by slaying all the firstborn men and beasts. The Jews had to slay a spotless lamb, take its blood and apply it to the door posts of their homes. They were commanded to remain indoors, under the covering of this blood until morning. When the Lord passed through the land at midnight to execute His judgment, He passed over the homes that had the lamb's blood on their doors and no one inside was hurt. This is a perfect picture of the redemption that Jesus provides for us.

Everyone deserves judgment because of their sins. However, Jesus provided Himself as a spotless, sacrificial lamb for us, so that if we apply His blood to our lives by confessing Him as Lord, God will pass over us on judgment day.

Jesus was sacrificed on the 14th day of the first month of the Jewish year - the exact day and time that the Passover lambs were being slain. Truly, "Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us" (1 Cor. 5:7).

Andrew Wommack

For our national leaders and world leaders as they lead their respective nations.

For our troops in Afghanistan, Bosnia, Korea, Iraq, Liberia, Haiti and other places.

For the "people in the box"-- the lost in our families and community.

For those who are being martyred and persecuted for Christ in our own time

For the church in Siliguri and Naresh Chhetri and Ashok Basfor

For the churches in Honduras and Haiti who partner with us in the gospel

Al Graff still having difficulty with his heart and breathing

Steve Miller continues with chemo and radiation therapy this week. There is some improvement but the biggest issue is tiredness and a low immune system.

Norm McGinnis wearing a heavy duty back brace for next 3-6 months

Garnet Lindeman having problems with nerve pain in her facial muscles

Henry Mason home now but still very weak.

Sam Miller was released from the hospital last Sunday following surgery on his appendix.

Russell Gilliland (husband to Sarah) released from KDMC this week, but still suffering at home with congestive heart failure and other problems.

We give a special welcome to all of our guests today. If this is your first time to visit with us this year, please stop by the Welcome Center in the foyer at the conclusion of services, sign our guest register and pick up your gift for being one of our guests today.

Sympathy Extended

- To the family of June Fittler (mother of Penny Ball) who passed on Friday in Mansfield. Arrangements are pending. Penny gives her personal thanks to all here at Sunshine who have been praying and ask for us to continue in our prayers. Visitation will be at the Werner-Gompf Funeral Home on Wednesday, April 27, from 11-1 and 4-6. Funeral services will be at 11 am on Thursday, April 28 at the funeral home.
- To members of the families affected by the shootings in Pike County on Friday of this week.

Memorial Day Parade

The Minford Memorial Day Parade is set for Monday, May 30, starting at 11 am. Watch the bulletin for more details. We will be represented in the Parade with our own float, but we all of us are invited by the Parade Committee to participate in the parade as individuals with our own tractors, bikes, horses, buggies, camels, alligators and any other critter that can be saddled up and ridden. Registration materials will be available in the foyer as soon as they are available to us.

Youth Retreat at Fort Hill

The Sunshine youth retreat is happening this weekend at Fort Hill Camp. Everything is scheduled to wrap up this morning about 11 am at the camp. Campers should be back here with us a little after noon. Thanks to Tim and Jamie and all the other adult helpers who have made this weekend possible.

Battlefield of the Mind Postponed

Due to Shaun Young being our speaker tonight during the evening service, we are postponing the session of Battlefield of the Mind that would ordinarily have shown. We will continue next Sunday evening exactly where we left off. Don't lose momentum, ladies. There's still a load of spiritual food coming in this series. See Judi, Serena, Ellen or Cheryl for details.

PM Services

Tonight, Shaun Young will be speaking for us in the auditorium. Some of the other adult classes will be postponed so that all may be part of the auditorium service. Children's classes will be at the discretion of the teachers.

Tributes to Mothers and Fathers

In May we have Mothers Day and we have a musical and pictorial tribute to our mothers that we present at the end of services. This year we would like to do the same for our fathers on Fathers Day in June. After morning services, Hayes Wilcox will be available in the pulpit area to make pictures for both of these tributes. We will be updating pictures that are already included in the Mothers Day tribute and we can begin to create the pictures we need for the fathers tribute. Just a reminder, that the oldest person in each photo needs to be the father or grandfather of the rest of the people in the picture. Same is true with the mothers and grandmothers. No appointment necessary. Just plan to stay after service.

Sweet Monday Mothers' Day

Sweet Mother's Day Dinner will be May 2 at 6:30 p.m. in the annex. There is a sign-up sheet at the welcome center for anyone planning to attend the dinner. This event is open to all the ladies of our congregation, but we do need a count so we have enough food! Thanks!! Hope to see you there! Thanks!! Heather

Public Reading of Scripture

In conjunction with the National Day of Prayer set for May 5, 2016, there will be a week-long public reading of scripture in the rotunda of the Scioto County Court House. Sunshine is participating by reading in the rotunda from 3-5 on Wednesday, May 4. If you are able to cover one of the half hour slots for reading, please sign up on the pad on the on the bulletin board.

Sunshine Servants Being Honored

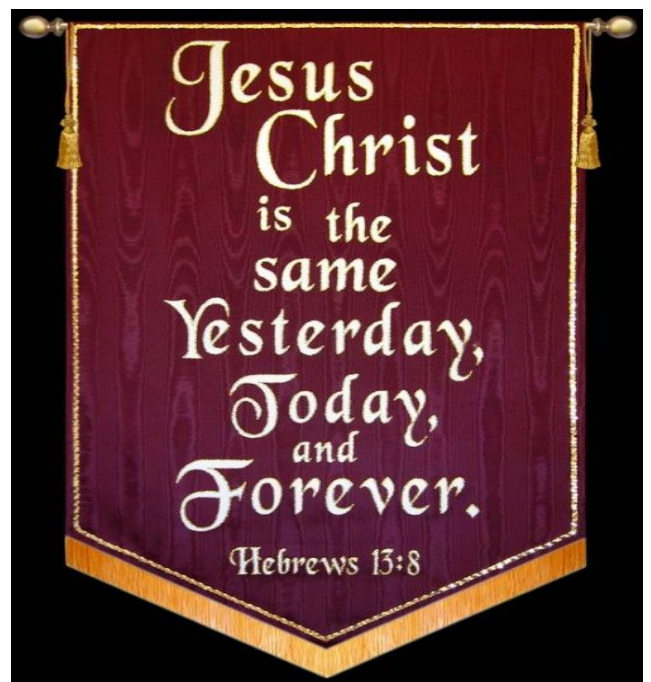

We want to thank you and honor you. We would like to thank you for helping us with donations of money and items for our projects we have done. We would like to honor you for your service now and in the past. Have you ever helped with food, cleaned, preached, taught, led a prayer, mowed, sent a card, etc., as part of your ministry for Christ? Whether your service has been big or small or anything in between, it has not escaped the notice of our Lord. And the 3rd and 4th Grade students at Sunshine would like to honor such servants with a light meal and program on Sunday, May 1, at 4:30 pm, in the Annex. PLEASE SIGN UP AND LET US KNOW YOU ARE COMING BY THIS WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27 SO WE KNOW HOW MUCH FOOD TO PREPARE. Questions, see Sharon Hallam

3rd and 4th grade class, Look!!!!

We will be staying at the building all day on Sunday, May 1 to prepare for the dinner. A hot dog lunch will be provided. If you do not like hot dogs feel free to bring something else quick to eat. Please bring clothes to work in during the afternoon and then you will change back into your church clothes later.

In the News

Congratulations to June Book who received the Exceptional Achievement Award for being an outstanding educator in the region! We are proud to have you in our district! Thanks for all you do!

Below are ten quotes by prophets, priests and kings of the Bible. Do you know who said what?

			I						- The Lord lives, praise be to my rock.
		A							- The Lord is my strength and my song.
			H						- The Lord is mighty to save.
					A				- The Lord your God will give you rest.
		L							- Commit to the Lord whatever you do.
			L						- Be glad, rejoice, for the Lord will do great things.
	O								- The Lord will feed them as a lamb.
			A						- Ye have wearied the Lord with your words.
		N							- Salvation is of the Lord.
