Bad Guys Don't Always Wear Black Hats

When I was a kid, westerns were a lot more popular than they seem to be today. Whether it was television or the movies, for the most part they were basic morality plays. It was the good guys versus the bad guys, and the good guys always won. Roy Rogers, Gene Autry, John Wayne, The Lone Ranger, James Arness, Tom Mix, the list of heroes was a long one.

One thing that was pretty standard in just about all of the shows was that the good guys always wore white hats and the bad guys always wore black ones. There were a few exceptions but, generally speaking, if a guy was wearing a black hat you could just about bet he was up to no good. By the end of the show he was either in jail or dead.

If only it were that easy to tell who the bad guys are in real life. Somebody offers to sell you something at a bargain price...wait, he's wearing a black hat, that means he's a crook! No thanks, I'll pass on that offer. Or maybe your daughter brings home her new boyfriend to meet you. Hey, he's wearing a white hat so everything is just fine.

Unfortunately it doesn't work like that in real life. In fact, at first glance the bad guys sometimes appear to be more "honest" than the genuine good guys.

Paul tells us in 2 Corinthians 11:14-15 "Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

Everyone's true character will ultimately become apparent. "Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven" Matthew 7:20-21.

The next time something seems to be too good to be true, you'd be wise to not make a snap judgment based on hat color alone. A little in-depth research might reveal the fruit has a few rotten spots on it...or maybe not. Just don't take things at face value. Check them out.

Katie and Brittyn will be taking any girls after church who would like to join out to Shawnee State Forest until 4pm. We will be having a cookout and spending time together. Wear outdoor clothes. New Deadline for Bulletin Announcements

The elders have recently hired a full-time worker to be in the church office during regular office hours. If you are wanting to get something in the bulletin please have it written out and left in the office by the computer or email it to info@sunshine-church.org before Friday at 8 am.

Bible Class Need

We are specifically in need of a teacher for the Sunday night class, 3 yr old - Kindergarten. We are also generally in need of more teachers across the age range. Our goal is to set up rotations for each class level, minimizing the demand on any one person. Curriculum materials will be made available. Mentoring opportunities will also be made available to any who desire. Please consider this vital area of service.

If your willing to get involved, please see Jason Coriell or Caleb Miller. Also, messages can be relayed through Brittyn.

Headed to China

On the 7th of July, Tim and Jennifer and Zoe Gampp headed for China to pick up Toby and bring him back to his forever home. They have safely made it to Beijing thus far. Please pray for the Gampp's as they continue this trip.

7/10-7/16	Fort Hill Church Camp
7/24	Family Fill-Up
8/21	Mix It Up Sunday
9/4	Beginning of Two AM Services
9/18	Law Enforcement Appreciation Day

Welcome To All of Our Guests

We give a special welcome to all of our guests today. If this is your first time to visit with us this year, please stop by the Welcome Center in the foyer at the conclusion of services, sign our guest register and pick up your gift for being one of our guests today.

Villingers Head for Haiti

July 16-23 Mark and Cheryl will be Haiti helping with a Leadership Conference given for all the students who are now part of the Hope for Haiti's Children education programs. The students look forward to this camp/conference every year. Mark will be teaching basketball and art; Cheryl will also be teaching and serving as a support worker.

Monthly Birthday Celebration

Each month until further notice those who have a birthday in that particular month get a little birthday party in the Annex on a Wednesday night after the Bible study courtesy of Mark & Cheryl Villinger. Those who have the birthday will be honored and everybody else is invited to join in the celebration and refreshments

Family Fill-Up Coming

Sunday, July 24, is Family Fill Up Day. Those seats that are nearby each one of us are reserved for your family members who need to be here in worship but who don't ordinarily come. The morning service will be built around the idea that we want all of our family members to be with us in heaven. But the decisions that we are making now will determine who and how many of our family members will be there. We will be creating some small invitation cards to be used as we make our invitations. We'll serve some punch and cookies in the annex after the AM service and maybe have some kind of little remembrance that they can carry with them. Bottom line is to fill up every seat in our auditorium with the people that we love most in life. Start praying about your invitation and the people you want to be in those seats right now.

Live Streaming

Over the past couple months we've been testing out a live video stream of our service on Sunday mornings. If you are unable to attend regular service, you can still participate by going to the church's website, www.sunshine-church.org, clicking on the media menu and selecting "Sermon Videos".

Anonymous Prayer Requests

Anonymous Prayer Requests can be sent at any time but they'll only be reviewed on Sunday Morning. Please send any prayer request to the phone number: 22333 via text. In the message body, please first include the code: 94706 followed by your prayer request. After a few moments you'll receive a confirmation that your message has been received. If you are having difficulty, please ask one of the deacons or Jacob Miller for assistance.

Ministry Highlight

Breaking Chains Honduras

BCH is an urban ministry established in 2009 as a way to reach out to those in urban poverty in the capital city of Honduras. The ministry's mission is to serve and seek change for those affected by urban poverty in Tegucigalpa by meeting basic needs and developing human relationships that act as a gateway toward a relationship with Christ. BCH channels its efforts through spiritual and physical outreach, education/training, and volunteer services. Volunteer services include hosting summer mission teams. Sunshine members have participated in many summer trips, currently two trips per summer. Jamie Riley serves on BCH Board of Directors.

Sunshine contributes $100 monthly to BCH.
