No Place Like Home...

I have to admit it has been an adjustment getting comfortable in our move from Ohio back to Oklahoma. The thing is, it just didn't feel like home. This was somewhat surprising since Oklahoma is where both my wife and I were raised. It wasn't only the fact that no one can seem to park straight in this town, and it's not that anything was really wrong—in truth everyone was very kind and welcoming. We just felt unsettled. You want to know something else? I hope we never get too settled here...

Dear friends, I urge you, as aliens and strangers in the world, to abstain from sinful desires, which war against your soul. Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us (1 Peter 2:11-12).

The point is, this isn't our home, Peter reminds us that we are, "Aliens and strangers in this world." Never forget that this life and this world is not what God has prepared for us, so do not get comfortable with what it has to offer. As beautiful as God's creations are, and as wonderful the relationships we have in this world, they are just a shadow of the things that God has planned as an inheritance for his children

Therefore, don't get settled in here, look forward to your new home and in the meantime, live as aliens and strangers. Let the Spirit shine out through your life, and tell as many as you can about your, "Other place."

Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am (John 14:1-3).

Ministry Highlight

Junior Church is an alternative worship service geared for kids, aged 9 - 13. The service involves singing and a lesson presented to the kids' level of understanding. The lessons are interactive with comments and questions encouraged. The service is located in one of the teen classrooms in the Fellowship Hall. Kids are free to go to the classroom when released by the song leader following the Communion Service in the main auditorium.
