Perfect

My father reached into his pocket, pulled out some change and paid the difference in what I had, compared to what the salesperson told me I needed. Somehow, I could never get it straight that three dollars would not buy that $2.99 item. With tax that item was $3.20. This week I told my daughter that she didn't have to be perfect. She said, "Why not?" I said, "We just do our best and God makes up the difference." Her response to that was wise beyond her years when she said, "So, I'm already perfect."

For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the sinful nature, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful man to be a sin offering. And so he condemned sin in sinful man, in order that the righteous requirements of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the sinful nature but according to the Spirit (Romans 8:3-4).

Here, Paul is explaining the shortfall of the law. The shortfall being, it involved man and man's sinful nature. It describes the inability of man, because of this sinful nature, to completely follow the law and so be justified by it. In the case of my "$2.99" purchase, my three dollars fell short no matter how hard I had worked to earn it. I needed my father to say, "I've got you covered." Likewise, we needed a Father to make up the difference. The difference came in the form of His Son-- Righteousness given to make us righteous.

Perfection given to the imperfect, the blood of Jesus covers us. And what is the stipulation for this gap coverage? Living our lives according to the Spirit. In the simple, yet not so simple conversation, with my daughter it is, "Us doing our best and relying on God to take care of the rest."

And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness (Romans 8:10).
