Living With Dragons

One day in England a "gentleman of the road" (we'd call him a hobo) stopped by a restaurant named the "St. George and the Dragon." He knocked at the back door and asked if he might have a bite of some leftovers to eat.

A very stern lady looked the fellow in the eye and said, "I'll not give you one crumb. You're a fit fellow. Get yourself a job, you bum!" And then to punctuate her point, she slammed the door in the fellow's face.

The shabbily dressed fellow stood looking at the establishment's sign for a moment and then knocked again. The door opened and the same stern lady asked in a hateful voice, "Well, what is it you want now?"

"I was just wondering," he said, "could I please talk to St. George this time?"

Unfortunately, we all face "dragons." Sometimes we work with them. Sometimes they are relatives. But let's face it. Sometimes, WE are the dragons!

So I look for a dragon slayer I can count on. It's called LOVE.

What makes the dragon in you appear? Petty problems, real or imagined slights, jealousy, insults, someone cheats you? Someone rubs you the wrong way? Do you really like yourself when the dragon appears? I know I don't like it when my dragons appear.

So let's try this formula from the Bible to slay those dragons. It goes like this: "Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor giving preference to one another..." (Romans 12:10).

-William Eudy, 2008

For our national leaders and world leaders as they lead their respective nations

For our nation

For our troops in Afghanistan, Bosnia, Korea, Iraq, Liberia, Haiti, and other places.

For those who are being martyred and persecuted for Christ in our own time.

For the church in Siliguri and Naresh Chhetri and Ashok Basfor

For the churches in Honduras and Haiti who partner with us in the gospel

Alan Graff Health continues to improve gradually, recent doctor visits were encouraging. Treatments have resumed.
