Cracks In The Foundation

Many years ago, my dad had to get a foundation expert to shore up the foundation to his house. And then about twenty years later before we sold the house, we had to have it done again, because the foundation was losing ground and had cracks in it.

There are cracks in other foundations. I am thinking of the many lives who think they can live like they want and then wonder why things have turned out bad for them. Notice these words from Jesus in Matthew 16:24-26. "If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross, and follow me. If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it. And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul? Is anything worth more than your soul?" (NLT).

There are cracks in some people's religion. They base their hope on a false idea of what Jesus is all about. I run into many who want the baptism, the wedding and the funeral but they don't seem to realize there is more to the Christian life.

And then I run into young women who want to have a baby with no means to support the baby. And there are those young men who don't accept responsibility for their actions. And there are so many today who think marriage is in the past. Some have even bought into actress Shirley McClain's idea that an open marriage is a good thing. All of these are cracks in the foundation of life.

Does God's Word have the answer to a cracked foundation?

If your life is full of cracks you need to think about what we have said. When you think it is alright to sin then there are cracks in your foundation.

If the foundation is destroyed what will you do?

-Keith Bellamy, 2016
